THE EVANS CASE.

NEW YORK, September 30, 1871.

GETTING ALARMED.

The commencement of the suits yesterday, against Garvey and others, will probably be followed by the initiation of like measures against other persons supposed to be connected with the robbery of the city treasury. The leaders of the ring are getting alarmed for fear that they will be brought into Court. From indications, it appears that the judicial investigation which they have with such apparent anxiety desired, will be afforded them.

DEMOCRATIC REFORMERS.

The demonstration of the Democratic reformers at Apollo Hall last night, was an immense affair. The announcement made by the chairman of the meeting, Mr. S. G. Courtney, that all the Democratic organizations in the city have been consolidated in opposition to Tammany, was received with tremendous cheering, as was also the letter of Hon. John A. Dix, announcing his concurrence in the movement, and his willingness to co-operate in securing its success. The General Committee of the organization is headed by Ex-Mayor Havemeyer, and is made up of the best men in the city.

THAT "STAR" ARTICLE.

Mr. Thos. C. Fields, the gentleman who stated that the incendiary article in the Star newspaper was inspired by Judge Hilton, which charge the latter denied, publishes a card saying that the day when the article appeared Judge Hilton informed him that he (Hilton) suggested the ideas to Mr. Howard, editor of the Star, that Howard said he liked them, and that he would make an article of them; but that he (Hilton) had no idea that he would make the article the length he had. Mr. Fields holds the office of Corporation Attorney.

TAMMANY DISSATISFIED.

There is dissatisfaction among the Tammany politicians at the assurances given by Tilden, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, that the anti-Tammany delegation from New York will be admitted to the Convention at Rochester, and the Tammanyites excluded. Mayor Hall's organ, the Leader, says that the chairman of the Convention undertakes to be arbitrary; he is an idiot.

SWINDLER SENTENCED.

Judge Bedford yesterday sentenced an eminent swindler named Oscar Davis to five years' hard labor. Davis, about a month ago, swindled Charles Mailliard, an emigrant returning from Illinois to England, out of some money. He was a keeper of a house where emigrants are taken in and "confidenced."

THE EVANS CASE.

George O. Evans, the defaulting Pennsylvania State agent, was before Judge McCune to-day on a writ of habeas corpus, his counsel contending that he should be discharged. No decision was rendered. The counsel for the State of Pennsylvania desire that Evans be sent to that State for trial.

THE UNPAID SALARIES.

It is expected that the Board of Fire Underwriters will make arrangements to advance the funds for the payment of salaries to the firemen, which the Treasurer of the Fire Department says he cannot meet, owing to a lack of funds.

ELECTION CONTRIBUTIONS.

A clerk in one of the city departments writes that he, in common with others employed in the various city offices, has received a communication, signed by Wm. M. Tweed, asking a contribution of two per cent. of their annual salaries to go to the election funds.

ORDER GRANTED.

Judge Barnard has granted an order to compel the senior member of the firm of Ingersoll & Co. to be examined for the purpose of eliciting testimony on which to base a complaint in the suits that have been instituted against some of the city officials.

PUNISHMENT OF ABORTIONISTS.

The New York Academy of Medicine recently adopted a series of resolutions, expressing approval of the address of Judge Bedford to the Grand Jury, when he advocated an amendment to the statutes so as to render abortion manslaughter in the first degree.

NEW PLAN.

Robert B. Roosevelt, it is reported, has devised a plan whereby the corrupt influences of Mayor Hall's dishonest election inspectors will be nullified. The plan has not yet been made known, but will probably be announced after the Democratic State Convention.

CARD ISSUED.

J. H. Keyser has issued a card asking the public not to pass a too hasty judgment upon his accounts. The work will be found to embrace for two years and a half, he says, nearly all the work furnished to the Croton Board, Sewers, Lamps and Gas Departments.

A BOLD DECLARATION.

The Tribune says: "We will not, any honest paper will not, make war upon the Tammany thieves and spare the worse criminals of our own party holding our highest offices. Thomas Murphy must get out of the Custom House."

THE ROCHESTER CONVENTION.

The Tammany delegates to the Rochester Convention were elected in this city to-night. The list is made up mainly of Tammany office holders, but neither Tweed, Sweeny, Connolly or Hall are of the number.

THE NAVY YARD.

There was a wholesale discharge to-day of mechanics from the Construction Department of the Navy Yard. Among the dismissed was John Leavy, who was a delegate to the Syracuse Convention. Other discharges will follow.

NO MONEY.

Several branches of the city departments were unable to make the usual payments to-day, owing to the restraints upon the City Treasury.

CONNOLLY'S FRIENDS.

Some of the friends of the Comptroller last night held a meeting and applauded the course of Connolly. Mayor Hall was denounced as a Know Nothing.

ARRIVED.

The steamer Britannia has arrived. The steamer Ocean Queen, from Aspinwall, has also arrived.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.

Chief Justice Chase arrived here yesterday, on his way to Rhode Island.

NEW YORK, October 1, 1871.

RAILWAY VISITORS.

About one hundred and seventy-five general agents and railway secretaries arrived here yesterday by special train from Philadelphia, having come through in two hours and thirty-five minutes, the quickest time on record. After a visit to Central Park and a banquet in the evening, the party returned to Philadelphia.

GRAND DUKE ALEXIS.

The arrangements for the reception of the Russian Grand Duke Alexis are completed. Thirty committees of leading citizens are at work. The programme is a yacht fleet to escort the Imperial squadron up the bay. The Grand Duke lands at the Battery, and will be escorted to the Clarendon Hotel by the First Division of the National Guards. The time for the public reception is unfixed. It is thought Alexis will proceed immediately to Washington to tender his respects to the President. A reception ball will be given in the Academy of Music. There will be visits to the Navy Yard and public institutions, drives to Jerome and Central Parks, and a grand review of the first and second divisions of the New York a d New Jersey militia.

YOUNG DEMOCRACY.

An address from the committees of the Young Democracy to the electors, signed by Joseph Blumenthal, Boswell D. Hatch, Thomas A. Ledwith, and others, appears in print. It announces that it will again unfurl the banner of political reform, and invites the co-operation of all sincerely opposed to fraud and corruption, and to drive the bold and bad men who have plundered and disgraced us from power and place. The address promises unceasing efforts to rid the service of the city of thieves and plunderers, and concludes as follows: "Down with the ring. No more repeating and false counting. No more swindling and stealing. Down with Sweeny, Tweed, Connolly, Hall, and their ring allies, and only incorruptability and character must be the future tests of political preferment."

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED.

Criminal proceedings have been instituted against Michael Connolly, Register of the city, for alleged larceny. It is stated he forcibly took papers from parties who were verifying memoranda obtained in his office as to sales of real estate, saying he supposed that some reporter wanted to get at the real estate transactions of the ring, and he would allow none to obtain surreptitious information from his office. When a return of the papers was demanded, Connolly said he had burned them. He subsequently admitted to having them in his possession, but did not give them up. Warrants for a search of the Register's office and the arrest of Connolly have been issued.

TRADES UNIONS.

At a meeting of the Trades Union delegates last evening, Mr. Elliott spoke in favor of cutting loose from the existing political parties, and having a ticket of their own, denounced the political corruption of the city authorities, and endorsed the action of the Committee of Seventy. A motion for the committee to arrange a mass meeting to nominate candidates was postponed.

NOT ARRESTED.

Register Connolly has not yet been arrested. He is a Tammany delegate from the Seventeenth Assembly district to the Rochester convention. Justice Coulter stated that he would issue an order for his arrest to-morrow. In any case, it is probable that the affair will result in a way to enable Connolly to go to the convention.

AMERICAN STEAMERS.

Among the passengers who left the city yesterday was United States Consul C. Waldemar Kleeberg, of Liege, in Belgium, who has been in this country for the past three months, making arrangements for a line of American steamers to ply between New York and Antwerp, in Belgium. The government of the latter country has promised a cordial support to the undertaking.

SUMMONS SERVED.

It appears that Ingersoll has really been served with a summons in the suit to recover six million dollars belonging to the tax payers, alleged to have been fraudulently obtained during 1869 and 1870. He is to appear for examination before Judge Barnard next Friday.

PARK LABORERS' MEETING.

Some park laborers met at a hall in Fifty-third street last evening and listened to a speech. They adopted resolutions in favor of having the Democratic party purged of any unworthy members who committed a crime against the city and disgraced the party.

PHOTOGRAPHS SIEZED.

The last issue of a certain weekly pictorial paper, printed in this city, contained a large cut representing Hall, Tweed, Sweeny and Connolly in convict dress and heavily manacled. The police, by direction of Mayor Hall, seized the whole edition.

VIGILANT.

Several councils of vigilance and public safety have been organized in many of the Brooklyn wards, with a view of keeping unworthy officials out of power, in the event of such being nominated this fall by either of the great political parties.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Senator A. G. Thurman, of Ohio, Hon. J. M. Walker, President of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, and Hon. James F. Joy, President of the Michigan Central Railroad, are in the city.

THE PUBLIC WORKS.

Tweed, who was interviewed yesterday, says the Department of Public Works has money enough to meet all liabilities for a long time to come.

TAX LEVY PASSED.

The Board of Supervisors to-day passed the annual tax levy, the amount of which is $23,362,527.62.

THE INJUNCTION ORDER.

Judge Barnard will not settle the injunction order till Monday.

YACHT ARRIVED.

Ashbury's yacht Livonia arrived.

An old man, partially blind, whose name is unknown, jumped from a ferry boat in the middle of the river yesterday afternoon and was drowned.

Nearly twenty persons have committed suicide by jumping from ferry boats plying in this harbor during the past three months.

THE CINCINNATI EXCURSIONISTS.

The Cincinnati excursionists were formally received at the Southern Hotel this afternoon by a committee of the City Councils, headed by Mayor Brown, who made a brief welcoming speech, which was replied to by S. F. Covington, President of the Cincinnati Councils. The visitors were then driven to the water works, fair grounds, Shaw's Garden, and other places of note about the city. They leave for home to-morrow evening.

RAILWAY ROBBERIES.

The Atlantic and Pacific Railroad lost a large amount of goods from their freight trains during the last summer, and no clue could be obtained until last Saturday night, when J. P. Morrison, formerly an engineer on the road, was detected robbing a car at Dixon. Morrison's house at Holden was searched and a considerable quantity of property of different kinds recovered.

SAFE ROBBED.

The Southern Hotel safe was robbed this afternoon.

CINCINNATI.

Yellow Fever.

CINCINNATI, September 30.—A man named Isaac Smith, who resides at No. 80 Longworth street, returned five days ago from a visit to Natchez, Mississippi, died this morning of yellow fever, and was buried this afternoon by order of the health officer, and the sanitary police guarded his room to prevent persons from entering. His clothing and bedding were burned by the health police and the room disinfected. The deceased visited Natchez, and went into the vault and saw the body of his brother-in-law, who had just died of yellow fever. There is not the least fear or danger of the disease spreading here.

A large club was formed, the members consisting of both Republicans and Democrats.

The area of highest barometer which was on Saturday afternoon between the Ohio valley and the south Atlantic coast, is now confined to the latter States, and the pressure has continued to fall slowly in the northwest. The pressure has fallen slightly in Florida, and still more so in Texas. Brisk northwesterly winds have continued in southern Florida, with clearing weather; easterly winds with clouds and rain on the Texas coats, which have extended northward into the interior. Light winds have prevailed on the Atlantic coast, with a general tendency toward the southeast this afternoon. Southeasterly winds have continued north and west of the Ohio valley, veering this afternoon to the southwest, with increasing cloudiness. The temperature remains stationary in the eastern States, Gulf coast and northwest. Elsewhere it has risen somewhat since Saturday afternoon.

Probabilities.—The barometer will probably fall on Monday very generally east of the Mississippi, with partially cloudy weather from Tennessee and Georgia to the lower lakes and New England, and cloudy weather and fresh southwesterly winds from Missouri to the upper lakes. Cloudy weather and rain will probably extend from Louisiana and Texas to Missouri and Kansas.

One of the cables of the old suspension bridge leading from the foot of Sixth street to the Crescent Iron Mill, across Wheeling Creek, broke, with nine persons on it, five of whom fell to the creek bottom, a distance of about thirty feet. Two men, Thomas Caleghom and James Klene, were killed outright, and Charles Coyle has since died. Albert Elliot, Joseph Hague and Geo. A. Kens are badly hurt. One or more of these will probably die. The other three fortunately caught the other cable and got off. The bridge has been an unsafe structure for some time, and was closed by order of the City Council, but the employes of the iron mill had torn the obstruction away for their own convenience.

Riot at Danville.

After futile efforts on the part of the Mayor to disperse the mob, the military were called out and the riot act was read twice. Stones being thrown at the Mayor, the military were ordered to charge bayonets on the mob, and one of the most turbulent of the rioters was bayoneted. A policeman was shot by some unknown person. Great excitement prevails. Stores are closed, and people have been ordered to stay in their houses.

—The bids for building the bridge at Atchison, Kansas, were opened on Saturday. B. Broomer, of Chicago, was the successful bidder, his bid being $850,000 for the bridge complete, including the approaches, the bridge to be finished within twelve months. General W. W. Wright will be chief engineer.

—The yellow fever excitement at Vicksburg has subsided.

ECCLESIASTICAL COURT.

Rev. John A. Gray's Trial.

FIOTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The Court re-assembled Saturday morning at half past nine o'clock, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. R. Mills.

Mr. George T. Hobbs was then again called to the stand.

Mr. Hobbs. I wish to make an explanation; I said yesterday between June and July, that was too indefinite; I now make it the latter part of June.

Q. Make what? A. The coming of the two parties, Mr. Gray and Annie Littell; or my noticing their coming.

Q. Do you say now that you noticed them coming before the 1st of July? A. No: I stick to what I said yesterday, and make the singular number, she.

Q. Did you or did you not ever see Mr. Gray there prior to the 1st of July? A. I won't make a positive assertion of that; I think I have.

Q. Did you not say, at the close of your examination yesterday, that you did not remember of ever seeing him prior to July 1st or during your occupancy of the front room? A. I think I did not so state yesterday, but on second consideration think I did see him.

Q.—Before you noticed Mr. Gray visiting this room did you notice Annie Littell unlocking the door and lock the door upon entering and leaving. A.—She had a key and unlocked the door as he (March) would not be there, but do not remember the locking, the door being partially open at times occasionally.

THE DOOR OPEN.

Q.—At what hour of the day did you see the door left open. A.—From nine to eleven say.

Q.—Was it during the time she was clearing the room. A.—I believe it was.

Q.—Have you noticed her on these occasions carrying slops from March's room to the water closets. A.—I never saw her with anything of that description in her hands.

Q—What was her customary hour of going there. A.—After Mr. March would leave in the morning, in the neighborhood of nine o'clock; I have seen her there before that time after March would have left.

Q—What was her customary hour for leaving? A.—The most general time was late noon, and sometimes late in the afternoon, not leaving for dinner as I saw; I having gone to mine, I did not see her leaving.

Q.—Did she ever leave without your seeing or hearing her? A.—I suppose she has; that I cannot say anything about.

Q—How often have you known her to be there, when you did not personally know of her going away? A.—About half dozen times.

Q.—What room did you occupy when you heard her sweeping March's room? A.—The back room.

Q.—What time did you notice the door being left ajar after you say these visits ceased? What time of the year and what hour of the day? A.—In January, and in the evening.

Q.—Who was there at the time, and for how long a time would the door be left ajar? A.—Know of no other than Mr. March, and it was during the time of his dressing in the evening.

THE LAST TIME TOGETHER.

Q.—What was the last date you remember to have seen Mr. Gray and Annie Littell, or either of them, at March's room? A.—Some time in December.

Q.—Did you ever see Annie Littell there after December 1st? A.—As near as I can remember both visits ceased at the same time in December.

Q.—Then you did see her there, in December? A.—By that it would appear so.

Q.—Did you not yesterday state that both Annie Littell and Mr. Gray ceased their visits before December 1st? A.—That I do not exactly remember, but the time was about that time; I did not notice dates at the time; as near as I can guess that was about the time.

Q. Is your recollection of the testimony you gave yesterday as clear and distinct as your recollection of dates and circumstances, in which you had no concern, transpiring ten months ago? A. My recollection of things is a great deal better than of dates; I can only hit upon dates, as I made no chronology, as I never expected to appear in such a case.

Q. What I now want to know is, whether you recollect what you stated here yesterday as distinctly as matters you testify to as having occurred ten months ago? A. Some of my recollections of the past are more distinct than those of to-day, as I have rehearsed and thought them over more.

HE HAS SUSPICIONS

Q. When did you rehearse or think them over, and for what purpose? A. From the very first of my suspicions being aroused and for my own justification, as I contended it was a nuisance to me.

Q. You stated that the communicating door between your room and March's was nailed on his side. Could it have been nailed on the other side. Did it not open into March's room? A. The door was nailed on his side as I said. The door swung in his room and was nailed from his side; it colosed again a "rabbit" which was on my side.

Q.—Upon any occasion, when you say that Mr. Gray and Annie Littell were there together, did you ever see or know of Mr. Gray entering the room first. A.—No.

Q.—Upon any of those occasions did you ever see or know of Annie Littell leaving the room first. A.—Not to my recollection.

Q.—Did you ever see or know of any other person than Mr. Gray and Annie Littell visiting March's room. A.—Not from my own observations.

Q.—Had you the same facilities for seeing and knowing of other persons going there. A.—I had not. I mean to say I had the same facilities for seeing, but not of knowing other persons.

NEVER HEARD OTHER SOUNDS.

Q.—Why not? A.—Because I never saw anything nor did I ever hear any sounds foreign to those I had come to know.

Q.—Could one have been a frequent visitor there without you knowing it? A.—Not a frequent visitor by day and by night; I should say no.

Q.—Could he by daylight be a frequent visitor without you knowing it? A.—I don't see how he could.

Q.—Do you know Rev. D. I. K. Rine, and did you ever see him there? A.—I do not know him personally; I never saw him there; I have seen him since.

Q.—For how long a time were the workmen engaged in the repairs of that building? A.—Can't exactly tell.

Q.—About how long? A.—I won't guess for dates any more.

Q.—Was it two months? A.—It was.

Q.—Was it three months? A.—It may have been.

Q.—Was it four months? A.—It might have been.

Q.—Was it five months? A.—I can't say, I don't know when they started.

"LIGHT AND NIMBLE" FOOTED WORKMEN.

Q.—Were there workmen passing up and down stairs during the progress of these repairs? A.—Yes, sir; but the general rule was then to go up the front by ladders; that was by special orders.

Q.—Was it an every day occurrence for them to go up and down stairs? A.—Yes, sir; I was also superintendent of that work.

Q.—About how many workmen were employed there? A.—From three to five every day.

Q.—Did any of them have a "heavy tread," or were they all "light and nimble-footed?" A.—They differed; some had, and some had not.

Q. Did you come to know each of these men by their walk? A.—I did not note them, as I had no object.

Q.—How high is the door of Sampson's office? A.—I can only give the approximate measurement; the hight of the door was not over eight feet; there was a transom over the door of about twenty inches or more in height, I think most all of the doors have transoms, and I think that has.

Q.—How high is that portion of the stairway immediately opposite the door? A.—Aout five feet six inches.

Q.—How wide is the hall there? A.—My diagram calls for seven feet.

Q.—Sitting in the middle of that room of Sampson's, would it be possible to see the face of a man nearly six feet tall, while he stood on the stairway opposite the door? A.—I think it possible it could be seen.

THE "CLOSET" AND THE BOTTLES

Q.—You say you examined the closet in March's room shortly after he left. Please state if it had a lock upon it? A.—I never remember seeing one.

Q.—Did you look at it to ascertain that fact? A.—I never did.

Q.—Who occupied the room prior to March's coming? A.—David P. Herbst and family.

Q.—What was his business? A.—A caterer.

Q.—After he left did you take an inventory of the bottles in the closet? A.—I never remember of seeing them, having gone in several times and showed the room to my friends to get them near me.

Q.—Did you examine the closet on those occasions? A. I think I did; I looked everywhere.

Q.—Who were the friends you speak of? A.—David P. Marshall and son, the man who occupied it afterwards with me. I took several parties in there; they generally thought it was too dark, and would not examine it.

NO SOUND OF REVELRY.

By Mr. Leonard (of the Committee.) Q.—Did you occupy March's room before it was occupied by March? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did you ever hear any conviviality in March's room? A.—I think not; I know not; not that I have heard.

Q.—Did you ever hear, in that room, the popping of corks of champagne and porter bottles? A.—No, sir.

You spoke of hearing every word that was said by some sewing girls who were in one of those rooms when you were in the other. Did they use sewing machines, and were they in operation during the conversations? A.—I said I was annoyed by their conversation, which I could hear too plainly, and the greatest bother was not to hear what they said; they sewed carpets and used no machines.

Q.—Were there frequent visitors to your office or room during the summer and fall of 1870. A.—There were frequent visitors.

Q.—Were there more or less every day. A.—My visitors were not enough to average one a day.

Q.—Do you remember the 15th of October, 1870, and can you state how many persons visited you that day. A.—I cannot.

Q.—Can you recall the visit of any one or any particular circumstance on that particular day from your own recollection. A.—No, sir; I kept no chronology.

SATURDAYS AND MONDAYS VISITING DAYS.

Q.—Was there any regularity as to the day of the week, or hour of the day, in Mr. Gray's visits. A.—As to regularity of time, Saturdays and Mondays were more noted in my memory; in the mornings from ten to twelve seemed to be his most regular times for coming in.

Q. Did you ever see him there or know of his being there, upon any other day of the week, or at any other hour in the day? If so, state how often and the several times as nearly as you can remember. A. I say yes; in the mornings, and afternoons and evenings through the week, quite a number of times.

Q. About what number of times? A. Fifteen or twenty, or may be not quite so many.

Q. Did these visits continue regularly from the time you first noticed him, about the first of July, up until December? A. No, they were not regular, they increased toward the latter part; at least I noticed them more.

Q. Was there any time during which they ceased entirely, between July and December? A. I made no such notice; I never noticed any such cessation.

Q. Was there a single week during that period, in which Mr. Gray did not visit this room? A. There may have been but I don't remember any single week.

MR. GRAY'S ABSENCE FROM TOWN.

Q.—Do you not know that Mr. Gray was absent from the city for about six weeks during that time? A.—Not until lately.

Q.—You did not miss him, do you mean? A.—No, sir, I did not miss him; I was away twice for one week at a time with an intermission of ten days, in the neighborhood of the latter part of July and August 1870.

Q.—You have stated that Mr. Gray was sometimes in March's room when Annie Littell was not there. State how often and when? A.—Don't remember more than twice or three times in the fall; I think in the mornings; I noted that he didn't stay long.

Q.—How long? A.—Between a quarter and half an hour.

Q.—Did you not state before the Committee of Trustees that on those occasions, when he was alone, he would also stay an hour or so? A.—No sir, I think not; almost positive I did not.

Q.—How many times did you know or believe Mr. Gray and Annie Little to be in Marsch's room together? A.—Numerous times.

Mr. Hopkins—That isn't an answer. About how many times? A.—My recollection goes to a great many times.

Mr. Hopkins—Will you make some answer? A.—Thirty or forty times anyhow.

Q.—Did you not state on yesterday fifty or sixty times? A.—Very likely I did; I want to be under the mark this time.

Q.—Which is nearest correct? A.—The number of times I don't like to be too positive about, therefore I can't give the exact number of times.

MORE VISITS TOWARD FALL.

Q.—You have stated that in the fall these visits were oftener than twice a week. At what time did they commence to be more frequent? A.—I can fix upon no date; they grew oftener as I noticed them more toward the close of the intimacy. I think the average between one and two visits a week.

Q.—Did that average refer to the entire time? A.—That is the average of the whole time.

Q.—What was Mr. March's habit as to visiting his own room in day time? A.—As a general rule he visited his room but at noon; but some times I have seen him in the middle of the afternoon—not frequently. He would return about twilight in the evening, and was out as much as he was in in the evening.

Q.—How long would he remain when he would go to his room in the daytime as a general thing? A.—A very short time. He would often go away with Mr. Gray at noon.

Q.—Had Mr. Gray come with him, or had he been there and waited for him, on the occasion they went away together? A.—No, sir, not always; he sometimes came with him and went away with him; sometimes he went away with him when he had not come with him.

Q.—Had Annie Littell left usually before March came at noon? A.—No, sir, generally afterwards.

Q.—Did you ever enter or go away with both or either? A.—Not to my knowledge.

Q.—Did she ever see Mr Gray and Annie Littell together? A.—No sir.

MR. GRAY NEVER USED DISGUISES.

Q.—Did Mr. Gray upon any of these visits wear any disguise or attempt any concealment? A.—None that I ever saw.

Q.—In your testimony in chief you were made to say that you saw Mr. Gray visit this room with Annie Littell. Is that what you meant? A.—No, sir; not in company with her.

Q.—Did Mr. Gray carry a cane and walk laboredly during all the times these visits continued? A.—Not always; he generally carried the cane with him; this was the general custom from the first of his visits; towards the latter part he got better and walked with more ease and quicker: the cane may not have been with him all the time.

By Mr. Hamilton. Q.—Had you any other way of knowing that he entered the room? A.—Yes, sir; by the character of the sound and by sight.

Q.—Did you ever see him enter the room? A.—Never did: I saw him so near the door, though, that it was not necessary to stop and see the rest.

THAT "LETTER" AGAIN.

Q.—When was the letter written of which you spoke?—After I recognized that was John A. Gray; in the late fall; could not give the month.

Q.—Was it not in August? A.—No sir. it was cool weather, for I went to church with my overcoat.

Q.—Did you not state before the Committee of Trustees that the letter must have been written between the first and middle of August? A.—I think I did, but owing to the short time in which that paper was prepared, I gave as near as I could recollect the time; but I have proved to myself since that it was wrong.

Q.—How. A.—The letter was written in a room where there was a stove, and it was a chilly day when I went to church, and I wore my overcoat; it was written on Monday.

Q.—Was it not written when Fred Norton was there. A.—It was written during one of his visits.

Q.—How was it signed. A.—There was no name to it.

Q.—Who wrote it. A.—That is not for me to say. I did not.

At this point the court adjourned until half past one o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The court re-assembled at half past one o'clock, and was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Williams.

Q.—Was that letter written before or after you came to Christ Church? A.—After.

Q.—Was it in the summer or fall? A.—More likely the fall.

Q.—State the order and time of their entering the room that night. A.—On this particular occasion they came together, about eight o'clock, Mr. Gray and Mr. March.

ANNIE LITTELL PRESENT.

Q.—Was Annie Littell there when they went? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What time had she gone there? A.—I do not know, sir, as I had returned from supper.

Q.—What time did you return from supper? A.—Between seven and eight.

Q.—What was

you have known Annie Littell to be there. A.—Until I have gone to bed; between eleven and a half and twelve; until I had gone to sleep.

Q.—Upon those occasions did you hear any one with her after eleven o'clock. A.—I think Mr. March was with her; that was my impression then from things in general.

Q.—What things in general. A.—His voice.

Q.—Did you not state before the Committee of Trustees that you never knew Annie Littell to be there after eleven o'clock. A.—I think not. sir, it would have been a great mistake on my part if I had.

Q.—When was it that Berkstresser told you that the person visiting March's room was Mr. Gray. A.—Two or three weeks before that.

RUMORS OR FACTS.

Q.—You stated in your direct examination that you notified the owners of the building about the rumors relative to Mr. Gray and Annie Littell. From whom had you heard these rumors at that time? A.—They were from ourselves. I made use of the word rumors to him; the facts as we knew them.

Q.—When was this? A.—The latter part of December or in December.

Q.—Can you tell about the time you heard

THE THREE VOICES TOGETHER

in March's room? A.—I can.

Q.—How long after that notice to quit, which you say was given to Mr. March, did he continue to occupy that room? A.—About four weeks after that.

Q.—How often have you known Mr. Gray to be there at night? A.—Not very often.

Q.—Can you fix any time or date for any of his night visits? A.—I cannot; have no dates at all.

Q.—What was the latest hour at night you have known him to be there? A.—After half-past ten; between that and eleven.

Q.—Was she there then? A.—Yes.

Q.—How did you know it? A.—By hearing her voice.

Q.—Did you hear her voice before you say Mr. Gray and March went in together? A.—No, sir. I was about to add to the last question, by her cough, and afterwards by her voice when Mr. Gray and March came in.

Q.—How did you know it was Mr. Gray and March? A.—From heavy step, cane, and nimble one, and also by their voices in the room afterwards.

Q.—When two persons are ascending a stairway together, you being in a room some distance therefrom, could you distinguish the difference in their step? A.—I could and I did.

TESTIFYING FOR THE THIRD TIME.

Q.—How often since your removal to Philadelphia, have you come to Pittsburgh to testify in this matter? A.—I believe this is the third time, with besides, other slight interests on hands at the same time.

Q.—When did you start for here the last time? A.—At 12:40 P. M., Wednesday.

Q.—Prior to your starting had you telegraphed that you were coming? A.—I had.

Q.—To whom? A.—Dr. Coffey.

Q.—Who paid the expenses of your trips here? A.—It was handed me by Dr. Coffey.

Q.—During the summer or fall of 1870, what was your habit as to keeping your door locked while you were in your room? A.—

MY DOOR WAS LATCHED

by a dead-latch, and I think the inside catch was broken off. I kept it under the dead latch, except in warm weather, when the door was always open.

Q.—During that period, was there any lady who frequented your room? A.—None except a darkey wash woman, and often her little girl.

Q.—Was there not for some time a lady painting or sketching in your room? A.—You have got the wrong room this time, but I was sketching in the front room, in Mr. Beeson's front room; there was a lady in that room; two of them, in fact; but there was none in my room. I had a young man in my room sketching.

Q.—Did these ladies go there daily for the purpose of sketching? A.—One did, and the other was a pupil once a week.

Q.—During the fall were there not several sewing girls engaged on the fourth story? A. Yes, sir.

Q.—Did you understand that Mr. March was a fine German and French scholar? A.—At the time I went to his room for the matches he told me was then reading Blackstone; he also told me he was something of a French scholar on the same occasion.

Q.—Did you ask him to come into your room and read French with you, that you were studying French? A.—About that time I was studying French myself; I believe there was something of the kind said about us reading it together, but don't remember who said it.

Q.—What time was that? A.—It was soon after March came to the building.

Q.—Did he not leave

QUITE A NUMBER OF BOOKS

lying about on chairs and sofa in his room? A.—He had, but I thought it was a settee rather than a sofa, or a board between two chairs. I did not particularly note that.

Q.—Was he not a gentleman of considerable literary acquirements? A.—I saw and heard no evidence of that except the books lying about; had not conversation sufficent to bring anything out. As for taste, I had very little to judge from.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION.

Q.—What time was it that these young ladies were in Beeson's room, and the sewing girls on the fourth story. Was it before or after the front of the building was finished? A.—After.

Q.—What time was it that Beeson went into the front room? A.—It was late in the fall; we got coal together, I remember; it was chiefly, cold weather.

Q.—When did you receive any notice to come out to this trial and how? A.—I received a telegram on last Tuesday night.

By Dr. Dempsey—When you were last here before this, for the purpose of in Mr. White's office, was there any understanding between you and these parties referring to your coming out to attend the trial if sent for? A.—They talked about another time; I did not expect to come, and told them I would not. I expressed my dissatisfaction about coming again; I told them that I would not come again—that I had enough of it.

Q.—By Mr. White—When you spoke to Mr. March about the rumors in reference to Mr. March's room, do you remember whether you mentioned the name of Mr. Gray? A.—I think not; I spoke against the room.

Q.—Did you stay in your room in the evenings generally, or were you generally out. A.—I was generally in; I was very seldom out at night.

Q.—What was your custom as to having company at night in your room? A.—I was in the habit of having my gentlemen friends coming once in a while; was generally alone.

Q.—When the door of your room was closed, could you hear the going to March's room, and hear the unlocking and locking of his door? A.—Yes, very easily; it was very quiet.

Q.—When the workmen were working at the repairs of that building, had they any occasion to be on the stairs or in the hall, except to go up and down to their work? A.—I don't know of anything to cause them to be there except passing up and down to their work.

Q.—During the forenoon and afternoon could these workmen see the hall in front of March's room? A.—Yes, sir, on the third floor; at certain times they could, while fitting up those two front rooms.

Q.—Did you ever see that gentleman (Rev. D. I. K. Rine) go up to March's room? A.—Never did: never saw him to recognize or remember his features until I saw him here yesterday or the day before.

Q.—When you made your statement before the Committee of Trustees,

WHO WROTE IT DOWN?

A.—Mr. James H. Hopkins.

Q.—Did he put down all that you said? A.—I trusted to his honor in that; I did'nt read it.

Q.—Was it read over to you after he wrote it down? A.—I believe not, sir.

Q.—Why did you sign it without it being read over previously? A.—I don't think the time permitted; he had to leave that afternoon, and I entrusted to his honor.

By Rev. Mr. Leonard—Was this testimony before the Committee of Trustees, given under oath? A.—No, sir.

By Dr. Miller—Did you ever hear Mr. Gray preach? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did he and Mr. March, passing up and down stairs as alleged, conduct any conversation? A.—No, sir; I don't remember any.

Q.—Did you ever distinguish anything said by these parties in the room? A.—No, sir; I always avoided listening to particularly there.

Q.—Did they speak sufficiently loud for you to have heard anything if you had wished to? A.—I think not.

Q.—If a conversation conducted in a tone not sufficiently loud to understand what was said, could you identify the persons by their words? A.—Yes, sir, where I was acquainted of course.

Q. Did you ever hear Annie Littell converse with any person? A. I heard her voice in conversation; not at any length though.

Q. Did you identify these parties, as you have said the three were in the room together, by the voices alone? A. On this occasion I noticed the two coming up the stairs by their sound, then and by the cough.

By Mr. White.—Q.—How could you distinguish their voices while in March's room? A.—By the character of the sounds. I said her voice was light and feminine, of course, March's voice was heavier and bright and sharp, while Mr. Gray's was low and bass.

By Dr. Dempsey—Q.—Did you ever hear Annie Littell speak when you saw her? A.—I never heard her speak when I saw her. I saw her come up with a lady to the front door. She exchanged words and they parted, and she went upstairs.

Q. By Mr. White—When you speak of hearing Annie Littell's voice in March's room, do you mean that you then knew it was Annie Littell's voice, or the voice of a female that you afterwards learned was Annie Littell? A.—I didn't know at that time who the woman was, but afterwards learned that it was Annie Littell.

RE-CROSS-EXAMINATION.

By Mr. Hopkins—Q. A.—What time was it when the sewing girls were employed on the fourth floor? A.—After the repairs; about the time Beeson went into his room.

Q.—When you testified before the Committee of Trustees, was not each sentence of your statement read over to you after it was written down, to see if it was correct? A.—I think it was; I won't be positive about that.

By Mr. Leonard.—Q.—Do you know anything about the habits of the parties who occupied the rooms previous to Mr. March, as to whether they used spirituous liquors? A.—I had quite a year's acquaintance with those parties, and never heard of any such extravagance.

Q.—Were they

IN THE HABIT OF DRINKING?

A.—Nothing stronger than ale.

Q.—Are you sure that those bottles you spoke of were used by those parties? A.—I am pretty near positive they were not, because I remember some little articles of furniture and papers left in that closet; I was in there and left no bottles; this was previous to March's entrance.

By Mr. Hopkins—Was there any interval between the time Mr. Herbst's family vacated the room and March commenced to occupy it; if so, how long, and

WHO KEPT THE KEY?

A.—There was an interval of between two and three months. Generally Col. Campbell kept the key; I usually went to him to get it, to show the room to my friends.

The examination of the witness was here concluded, and the testimony was read by the clerk to the witness.

The committee then adjourned until one o'clock on Monday afternoon.

NEW JERSEY is having a lively contest, and our friends hope to succeed in electing their ticket.

THE Volksblatt says that it is ironical, but it should have said it tries to be so.

"Often endeavor fails, and most oft' there
Where most it promises."

WESTON had better stop his career as a walker, and commence to make his living like an honest man. He has made enough failures to discourage almost any man, and to induce the belief that he is not near so good a pedestrian as he imagines himself to be.

WE ask careful attention to the official report of the Commissioners of City Hall, giving full details of receipts and disbursements. This is an agreeable contrast to the work of the Tammany officers in withholding from the public their accounts for years.

THE press of the country are almost unanimous in their expression of satisfaction at the defeat of General Butler. He is looked upon as too dangerous a man to be trusted with power and altogether too undignified to fill the chair left vacant by the lamented Governor Andrews, Massachusetts' war governor.

THE Golden Age finds that the difference between the Mormons and the Gentiles is "not that the Gentiles are any better than the Mormons, but that they are not so impolitic as to engage for the support of a whole harem." Mr. Tilton undoubtedly thinks it better policy to be a free lover and thus escape having to support his harem.

NOW that slavery has been abolished by the King of Siam and the Emperor and Legislature of Brazil, there is substantial ground for hoping that the day is not far distant when the world, from pole to pole, will be free. And on the day when the shackles drop from the last innocent human being, the long looked for millenium will have come at last, for—

What more felicitie can fall to creature
Than to enjoy delight with libertie.

THE FIVE HUNDRED arrests of the Ku Klux in North Carolina have not yet rid that State entirely of this order of assassins. The telegraph informs us that a party of witnesses who had been summoned to attend and give evidence at the trial, have been waylaid by a band of disguised men and one of their number at least murdered in cold blood. Our Democratic friends can hardly find any excuse for this latest outrage, and will be obliged to admit that the order is not yet quite disbanded. There was not the least provocation given in this case, the witnesses were quietly pursuing their way to Wilmington in obedience to the summons of the court, and their approach was somehow communicated to the outlaws, who prepared to murder them and thus prevent their appearance as witnesses against the Confederate Ku Klux. General Grant may yet find it necessary to declare martial law in North Carolina.

WE ARE informed that money is being used to influence voters in the second city Legislative district. We have the name of one man who received money himself, and offered money to another person to induce him to vote for and work for Robt. Liddell. We warn him to be careful, if he does not want his name exposed to the public. He knows who we mean, and will be astonished at this notice, which he will not be looking for. Republicans, we call upon you to do your duty in this contest. Stand by our own candidate; he is in every way worthy of your support, and the efforts of the enemy to defeat him, are contemptible and dishonorable. Be on your guard for "bogus" tickets issued to deceive you, and we are sorry to add being distributed by men from whom better things were expected. Don't give a complimentary vote to a Democrat who will turn immediately against you, and vote determinedly for his party on all occasions.

MUNICIPAL PROGRESS.

In a well considered and temperate article on this subject, the Commercial on Saturday called upon the Republican party of Pittsburgh, and particularly their immediate and responsible representatives, the members of Council, to pause and consider before entering upon great improvements, involving enormous expenditure of the money of the tax payers. We agree with the views of the writer in the main, and intend to do our duty also, in reference to this very interesting subject, in the earnest hope that nothing but good shall come to the people as well as the party. To draw the line between progress, and extravagance, between a proper and legitimate expansion of our facilities, and a reckless and undue haste, in a growing city like our own is a task so very difficult, that the best man might well wish to shun it. As our city increases in population and correspondingly in wealth, new streets are to be opened and paved, to provide proper facilities for transacting the business and affairs of life: sewerage becomes an absolute necessity in maintaining proper sanitary regulations; school houses must be built; gas and water extensions are to be made; the rough and uneven places in our hilly districts are to be graded for street purposes; market houses are demanded by the spreading population,—wharves and other improvements for the proper movements of trade become necessary, and in a word the people are amazed when they come to reflect upon the changes made necessary, with the expenditures growing therefrom, and compare the situation with that of their fathers, the Councilmen of twenty and thirty years ago.

Pittsburgh, undoubtedly is fast growing to be a great city, and improvements such as we have named are demanded, and must be provided by our councils. But right here is where the great trouble occurs. To decide what is, and what is not demanded is the difficult part. A few interested individuals can sometimes succeed in creating a great din, which is apt to be considered public opinion; contractors anxious to secure "fat jobs" are usually around and busy at such times, doing very little to induce temperate action, and wise forethought in fact every element that usually surrounds the Council chamber, and lends to it the influence of its presence and its argument, is in favor of, not opposed to improvements. The "hold backs," not able to face the opposition of their more clamorous opponents, nor willing to be called "old fogy," and to be sneered at for their opposition to progress(?) are usually much more moderate in their efforts to influence their members, and they are therefore invariably unsuccessful,—the "wide awakes" carrying the field by virtue of loud talk, much brass and the commingling of many voices. We believe that our Councils are composed of good citizens, we do not know one member whom we consider either dishonest or actuated by selfish or interested motives; but in most cases their business prevents them from giving much study to the subjects brought before them at each meeting, and they are therefore compelled to depend upon the subordinate bodies, the committees, whose particular duties are to examine everything entrusted to them by Councils, and report their judgment thereupon. That mistakes will occur under our system of holding monthly, or semi-monthly meetings, where the business often, which should have whole days for discussion and consideration is crowded into a few hours, none can doubt or wonder. Nor can this be remedied so long as we demand the unpaid services of our most prominent and active business men and parctical mechanics.

But whilst mistakes may and probably do occur upon these minor matters, such as street openings and similar acts of Councils where owners of property cannot agree among themselves, yet there is no possible necessity for radical errors to be made in matters of more general concern. These should never be decided without the most deliberate consideration, and the minutest investigation into their general utility, their necessity, and the probability of our city being able to provide them. First let it be fully demonstrated that the work is needed, and second let it be ascertained that our means will stand the outlay. This is the rule in active life, every man recognizes its practicability and its wisdom. Buy nothing until we need it, and only buy it then when we are sure we can actually afford it. There is no difference between a corporation and an individual in practical matters of this kind. A corporation can be bankrupted by great extravagance as well as an individual, and a whole community can be ruined by the same process, Taxation can be levied until the property cannot stand it, and the owner is obliged to let the Sheriff seize and sell it. Only a few day ago we published the fact that two whole pages of the World had been filled with a list of property in New York City seized by the Sheriff, and offered for sale for taxes. The property was not worth the amount of the tax. It does also often occur in the progressive city of Chicago. These facts are lessons to us, not to make haste too fast. We admire progress, we hail all useful and wise improvement. We are glad, we are proud to see it, and shall always encourage it, and despise the man who would not. But there is a limit, beyond which we should not go, at all times. What should not be done now, may be done properly in a year or two. Streets which ought not to be opened at this time, may be absolutely demanded a few years hence; and so of other matters.

This leads us to inquire, and we do so fearless of the result, whether our city has thus far developed too rapidly? Has undue haste marked the conduct of our Councils? Have they shown any disposition to rush things? If one visits Chicago, New York and other places that we could name, he will be struck with one very observable fact. Long lines of graded and paved streets, extending in some instances that we can recall, for miles, will be seen, without one single house or other improvement being found abutting. Why is this? Evidently "jobs" for somebody. These streets led in many cases to a swamp, or a fence. They were not needed certainly at that time, they might not be needed for years to come, in fact some of them might never be needed. You will find nothing of this kind in Pittsburgh, on the contrary a new district will spring up, and be well built up before the property owners find a necessity and petition for street or streets. This is the rule here, we are usually behind with improvements, and in this we are wise, and complying with the rule, "buy when you can pay." So with other matters, market houses, public schools, city hall, street lamps, wharves, crossings, and sewerage we have not shown undue haste; we have observed the same wise rule "to make haste slowly." All necessary things will come in good time, and Pittsburgh, founded on a rock, can surely afford to wait until the proper time shall come.

This leads us to inquire first as to the present necessity for the two great public improvements now being urged upon Councils, viz the water works and the park, and second as to our ability to meet the expense in addition to our present burdens.

We presume there is no grown person in this community who has not at one time or another, during the past ten years, dashed the cup of water from his lips, and involuntarily soliloquized on the oily and other offensive character of the drink furnished by the city, whilst he prepared to scold, (if not worse,) the city's fathers for delinquency in this regard. That our water is unfit for use, we imagine none will deny. That it is the duty of Councils to furnish pure water, in abundant quantity, no one will deny either. Then the next question will be, where shall they go to secure a full supply of the best water, at the lowest cost. They have employed skilful and practical engineers to investigate the matter, and after long careful and deliberate study and examination of the different schemes and locations proposed, they have reported at length their opinions and plans to Councils, and advise the adoption of them. We know nothing, systematically or relatively, about these proposed plans, we only have a general idea of them, but were we a councilman we should look well into them before giving them our sanction, with all due respect to the gentlemen who proposed them. This is a matter in which our children will one day be interested, the bonds which we shall issue to meet this expense will not mature and be met in our time, those we bequeath to posterity. See to it that we give them the full value of the legacy of debt. Be careful that what we do, shall not have to be done over again in twenty or thirty years hence. This being settled the way is plain, and every councilman feels the responsibility while he recognizes his duty.

In reference to the proposed park, we would ask ourselves, were we a councilman, the same questions. Do we need it? Can we pay for it? Is the proposed one the best we can get for the money? These being determined, nothing is left but to act. But before anything is done, whether with water works or park, with sewerage or what not, listen to the promptings of no one, but let each of our representatives determine in his own mind what his duty is, and act moderately, wisely, thoughtfully, and we have no fears of the result. The future of this city is in their hands, the future of our party in this city and county is also in their hands, and in the name of all the people, and of our great party as well, we would call upon them, at all times to so act that the best results shall be ours, that our city shall continue to grow and increase in wealth, population and influence, and that our party shall be enabled to point with pride to their acts, and say, this is our work; have we not done well?

RAILWAYS.

THE Lancaster and Reading Narrow Gauge Railroad was organized at Lancaster, on the 25th inst., with a strong Board of Directors.

IN A speech made at the opening of the Toronto and Nippissing Railway, Canada, a few day ago, Mr. Bellingham, of Montreal, stated that the Quebec and Gosford Wooden Railway was a failure; that the wheels were prone to stick at a curve, and that rubber had been tried as a remedy, but only made the matter worse.

Two thousand tons of railroad iron were purchased for the Champaign, Monticello and Decatur Railroad, Illinois, and have already begun to arrive on the line. The requisite ties, spikes, etc, are on the ground. The laying of the track has been contracted for to Monticello, and the line will be in working order as far as the latter part of December.

THE Hudson, Wis., Star says: A movement is in progress to lay the iron this fall on twenty miles of the St. Croix and Superior Railroad. Parties are at work securing the right of way, and taking the necessary steps to have the towns along the route vote in favor of subscribing stock. If these efforts meet with success, the iron will be laid immediately.

THE splendid wharf at Quantico Creek, built by the Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac Railroad Company, has been completed, and an early arrival of cars from the South is anticipated. The Alexandria and Fredericksburg Company have finished their bridge over Neabsco and Powell's creeks, except the draws, and at Quantico have all the piles driven, and are at work on the bridge.

THE Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company is extending the Mendota and Prophetstown Branch to Clinton, to connect with the Chicago, Clinton and Dubuque road, making by it and the Chicago, Dubuque and Minnesota road, a new route from Chicago to Minnesota. The contract for grading, tieing and ironing the extension from Prophetstown to Clinton—about twenty miles—has been let to Messrs. Grinnel, Wolfe & Carpenter, to be completed by the first of January next.

IT is reported that English capitalists have purchased iron and coal lands along the line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, and offer to invest at least a million dollars in the manufacture of iron there if the company will fix the rates of freight on an acceptable basis. Their proposals will be submitted to the company. A new town called "Huntington," after the President of the company, has been laid out at the Ohio river terminus, which, it is believed, will become an important manufacturing town.

THE track of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad is now laid to within about eight miles of Washington, some thirteen or fourteen miles south of the Annapolis and Elkridge Railroad. With the line laid north of this road there are now about twenty-two miles of the rails of the Potomac road laid. The two abutments of the bridge over the Patapsco are now finished, and the builders are now at work upon the middle piers, which it is expected will be finished about the 1st of December. The excavation under the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, near the Relay, is almost through.

THE Laclede and Fort Scott Railroad Company, at a recent meeting, closed a contract for completing the grading of the western division, from Lebanon to Fort Scott, and also for constructing, ironing and equiping the mail line from Ste. Genevieve to Fort Scott, as rapidly as the work can be pushed. The contract also embraces the construction and equipment of a branch road from Bolivar to Baxter Springs, Kansas, as soon as the requisite amount of local stock has been subscribed. The contracting parties (embracing, among others, O. L. Grant and Charles W. Colehour, of Chicago,) bind themselves to complete and equip the western division by the 4th of July, 1873, or sooner.

The Richmond (Virginia) Whig says: "In consequence of the immense business which the Tredegar company are now doing it has been found necessary to construct a bridge across the James river, connecting with the Danville road, in order to avoid the delay now incurred in shipping railroad cars to the South and West. The bridge will be built by the company and be used exclusively by them. It will be constructed on the Howe-truss plan, with the roadway on top. It will be cross the river somewhat in an oblique direction half way between the pump-house and the Tredegar works. It will twelve hudred feet in length, divided into nine spans, resting on granite piers. In regard to its durability and style, the fact that it is to be built by the Tredegar company is a sufficient guarantee that it will not be wanting in these respects."

THE Northern Central Railroad, of Michigan, which was formerly known as the "Ramshorn," and which was partially graded a number of years ago, is now in a fair way of completion. Work was commenced at Jonesville on the 30th ult., and shortly after at various points on the line, and is being rapidly pushed forward. The road is to extend from Jonesville northward through Lichfield, Homer, Albion and East Rapids to Lansing, the capital; and it is intended eventually to extend it to the Straits of Mackinaw. The citizens along the line are required to grade the road and put in the culverts, after which the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company will build the large bridges and put on the ties and iron, when it will become a branch and the property of that road. The length of the line from Jonesville to Lansing will be about fifty-five miles.

THE Richmond Dispatch says: The lease of the entire road of the North Carolina Company—two hundred and twenty-three miles—from Charlotte, N. C., to Goldsboro, N. C., by the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, was consumated on Monday, September 11, for 30 years, at $260,000 per annum. Possession fully delivered on Tuesday morning. And it is now operated under the control of Col. A. S. Buford, president of the Richmond and Danville Railroad, thus commpleting his plan of continuous line from Richmond and Chesapeake to Atlanta, Ga., and central south. The lease gives general satisfaction, as in the best interests of both contracting companies, and establishes a great thoroughfare from the eastern Atlantic States under one management. This is truely a great achievement for Virginia and North Carolina, and the mercantile, manufacturing and producing interests will be greatly augmented in both sections by the consummation of this grand scheme of internal improvement. We expect very soon to witness the wonderful effect produced by this continuous line, as it will surely instil new vigor and activity among the merchants and manufacturers of our city.

Middle State Railway Twists.

Under the above heading, George A. Townsend writes as follows to the Chicago Tribune:

The influence of malice and resentment must never be left out of a computation either in political or large commercial operations. Since the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad fell afoul of the Pennsylvania's "area of contribution"—so imperiously designated, I believe, in the latter company's report—in the matter of the Connellsville Railway, a series of extraordinary enterprises have ensued, generally for the public good.

First, the Pennsylvania Company influenced the Philadelphia & Baltimore Company to decline interchanges with the Baltimore & Ohio Railway, for which, in return, the Baltimore and Ohio road secured Jerry Black to help oppose the transfer of the New Jersey lines to the Pennsylvania.

Next, the Pennsylvania has changed its grade near Pittsburgh to prevent the Baltimore and Ohio building across and beside it to Chicago.

Thirdly, the Pennsylvania is building a route nearly parallel to the Connellsville Railway, from Greensburgh to Connellsville and Uniontown, and up the Youghiogeny, perhaps with the design to reach the Upper Potomac; and it is simultaneously working a line up the Shenandoah Valley, possibly with the intention of doing transfers between the West and South.

There are a number of short-cut railways done or projected between the bituminous and anthracite regions of Pennsylvania, mostly the work of the Pennsylvania Road. The Lewistown & Sunbury Road is finished, and the Tyrone & Lewisburg Road is "located" (a very good word, notwithstanding your professional reviewer and syllablebiter) and partly done, probably designed by the Pennsylvania Railroad, in case hard run by the New York Erie and New York Central on through time, to be used for a Lehigh Valley connection to New York.

The only towns in Central Pennsylvania said to be growing are Williamsport, Lockhaven, Altoona, and Tyrone; the latter has become a grand junction town. The agricultural population of the valleys is discontented, and is moving West and South.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

TO ILLUSTRATE the correctness of his opinion in a dispute, a Texan recently thrust his pistol down a Kansan's throat and threatened to fire. The Kansan admitted the truth of the Texan's statement immediately.

JAMES DORNEY, one or the firemen shot during the riot in Norfolk on Saturday night, died on Monday night. Two of the other wounded men are said to be in a critical condition. The investigation of the riot was to commence on Tuesday.

A MR. SUMMERS, of Palmyra, Missouri, placed a can of gunpowder in the oven of a parlor stove last summer. On Thursday his wife lighted a fire in the stove, and in twenty minutes the house was a wreck. Two ladies and a child of the family are suffering from fractured limbs, etc.

THE Vicksburg Herald learns from the officers of the steamer Big Sunflower from Yazoo river, of the killing of Mr. John Senter by Mr. Will Johnson, at Silver Creek Landing, on Sunday morning last. There had been an old feud between the parties, but it was supposed that they had made friends, as they had been in company together several times of late. At the time of the killing, they appeared on friendly terms, and were wrestling, when Johnson drew a pistol and fired at Senter, killing him almost instantly. Johnson escaped.

THE Paducah Kentuckian furnishes the following account of a suicide. The Kentuckian says: "An old man living in Calloway county, east of Wadesboro, went out in his yard one night last week, and lying on the ground, cut his throat. After doing so he crawled out into his cornfield, where he was found the next morning in a dying condition, unable to speak. He lived but a short time after he was discovered. His name was Henry Wolfe. He was one hundred and eight years old; was a healthy, active man; had never been sick, and had never taken a dose of medicine in his life. No cause is assigned for the act."

THE Memphis Avalanche of Thursday says: Last Monday evening Mr. John D. Nickle, a former well-known resident of this city, but for some time past residing in Yazoo City, Mississippi, was arrested upon a warrant issued by 'Squire Winters. The warrant was granted upon the affidavit of J. G. Lonsdale, of this city, who charges Mr. Nickle, as the agent of the St. Louis Mutual Life Insurance Company, with embezzling $1,654, the property of the company. Mr. Lonsdale states that Mr. Nickle, as agent of the company, has within a few months past collected the above amount upon policies issued by the company, which, upon a settlement, he failed to account for. Yesterday he went before the grand jury, and after giving his evidence a true bill was found against Mr. Nickle, who still remains in jail.

THE Cape Girardeau (Missouri) Argus records a distressing accident, resulting in death. The Argus says: "On Monday, the 11th inst., John L. Gardner, a young married man, living near Lakeville, started to that place; and, not returning at night, his wife went next morning to hunt him. He had left Lakeville Monday night, considerably worse for strong drink, and under whip and spur. On the way the wife encountered his dead remains. As near as could be ascertained, he was riding furiously down hill, when his horse fell, pitching him over its head, breaking his neck and killing him instantly. On coming up to his remains his wife fainted, and was found in that condition shortly afterward by some passers-by. He had been married about a year, and left one child."

THE Memphis jail must be a "jolly old place. The Avalanche of Thursday contains an account of how Padden, the murderer of Burr, manages to pass his time. On Wednesday evening, with one of the turnkeys, he attended the theatre, both got on a spree, and about one o'clock both went to a restaurant for lunch. The gardens and other places of resort were not forgotten in their rounds When the fact became generally known throughout Memphis, intense excitement prevailed throughout the city, and an alarm was raised that Padden had escaped. Officers were secured, and Padden was found, with the turnkey, at the eating house, quietly enjoying themselves, the turnkey being too drunk to be otherwise than quiet. The people were amazed at the impudence of Padden, and call him an arrant fool for not escaping.

THE Quincy (Fla.) Journal has the following: "Though it has been our fortune to have resided on or near the coast of Florida for more than forty years, never have we witnessed such succession of severe and destructive storms as have prevailed within the last month. There has not a week of that time passed without there having been from one to three storms, doing an amount of damage to property of all kinds unparalleled in our State. It is true there have occasionally been storms heavier and more destructive than any one that we have had this year, but after one the weather cleared and was good; not so this year." The journal also says that every species of crop is severely damaged. The corn, not having been generally gathered, was much injured, and cotton has been hurt as much by the storms and rust as it would have been by the ravages of the caterpillar.

THE following is the account in the Petersburg Progress of the reported murder of a negro boy, near Suffolk, by his stepfather, who, it is said, had tied him to the railroad that the cars might run over and kill the poor fellow: "The annals of crime can scarcely show a more brutal outrage than the one committed on yesterday, by a negro named Fred. Macklin, upon his step-son, a boy of fourteen years, in the neighborhood of Wakefild, on the Norfolk railroad. The brute tied his stepson upon the track of the railroad for the purpose, he said, of giving him a whipping, and then, leaving the boy tied, went into the woods to cut some switches, (or rather under that pretense,) and while there the second freight train passed, running over his victim, cutting one of his legs off entirely and terribly mangling the other. The train was stopped, and the victim of Macklin's brutality was untied and carried to a house near by. Macklin had not been arrested at 11 o'clock last night."

SCIENTIFIC.

THE phosphorescent matter in fishes is asserted to be merely fat, in a paper lately read before the Association of Naturalists and Physicians at Turin.

BARON DE SELYS LONGCHAMPS, in a communication to the Entomological Society of London, estimates the number of known species of dragon-flies at 1,344.

A GOLD medal and a prize of $750 are offered by the Prussian Association for the Promotion of Industry, at Berlin, for the best practical essay on Aniline colors.

PROF. VAN BENEDEN, of Belgium, has pointed out the distinction between true parasites and commensals. Parasites live on their host, but commensals merely with him.

PROF. B. A. GOULD, who has gone to the Argentine Republic to take charge of the national observatory at Cordova, writes home very enthusiastically in regard to the splendors of the southern heavens. He says the magnificence of the Milky Way is indescribable, exhibiting huge clusters, the sight of which through the telescope evokes exclamations of delight and surprise from every beholder, young or old, and whether with or without astronomical information.

FROM a paper on the vertebrate animals of Australia, lately published by Mr. Krefft, the Curator of Sydney Museum, we learn that no woodpeckers or humming-birds have ever been met with in that country. Among birds, the parrot is the most prominent, there being more thad sixty species. Reptiles abound, among them a species of crocodile, individuals of which frequently grow to the extraordinary length of thirty feet, and occasion much trouble to the colonists. No one of the five venomous snakes of the country is so deadly as the English viper. The number of known harmless species is seventy-five.

THE prospectus of a new French journal of science contains the following amusing remarks, suggesting that France's only hope of overcoming German arms in the future lies in the advancement of scientific studies: "France has just met with a great disaster, and people now understand that the cause of this disaster is, to a great extent, to be found in the insufficiency of our scientific instruction. To raise our country from its fall, and replace it in the rank which belongs to it in the world, we must learn to conquer Germany on the ground of science, in order to defeat her afterward on the field of battle. It is necessary then, above all things, to spread scientific tastes and studies."

THE Central Depot, in New York city, intended for the joint occupancy of the New York Central and Hudson River, New York and Harlem, and New York and New Haven Railroad Companies, will be formally opened on October 2d. The building occupies an area of more than five acres, extending from Forty-second to Forty-fifth street, and from the middle of Fourth avenue for about one-half the distance to Madison avenue. Its length is 900 feet, and its width 275 feet. The cost of the building is nearly $4,000,000.

IT is estimated that there is an average loss of two or three yards along the eastern coast of England, washed away by the sea every year, and that about thirty acres of land disappear annually between Spurn Point and Flamborough Head alone. There was once an important seaport called Ravenspurn on this coast, which returned a member to the Parliament of Edward I.; but in 1399 there was but little of it left, and at the close of the next century the ground on which it once stood had totally disappeared. Several villages which appear on old maps have been destroyed by the encroachments of the waves, and Kilnsea, which lost its church in 1826, is likely soon to be swept away altogether.

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.

The symptoms which usually precede Consumption are mostly of an insidious character, but quite marked enough to indicate to the intelligent physician what course of treatment ought to be followed in order to prevent its full development. If these earlier monitors were heeded Consumption, as a wide spread and devastating disease would be almost unknown. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, in all recent attacks, will cleanse the morbid poison from the system and restore that circle of life which is too valuable to be estimated by mere dollars and cents. How many cases are there like that of Mr. Irvin, published below, which, if treated like his, would soon get well:

DR KEYSER: You have asked my opinion about your cough medicine, and I can cheerfully say that I have used your Pectoral Syrup on one occasion during last spring. I thought at one time that I was surely going to have some serious pulmonary disease, as I coughed up large quantities of matter. I found my disease would not yield to anything else, as I had tried various remedies, and after the first dose of your Pectoral I received quite a relief, and I had not used the whole bottle until I was entirely cured. JAMES IRVIN, No. 293 Third avenue.

Dr. Keyser's Lung Care is sold at $1 50 per bottle, at his medical office, 167 Liberty street. If your druggist does not keep it, remit $5 to Dr. Keyser and he will send it by express. Pamphlet on Chronic Lung diseases sent wherever it is wanted by mail.

ST. LOUIS MAGNETIC SPRING WATER.

This water is highly recommended in cases of Rheumatism, Paralysis, Dyspepsia and all nervous diseases. A supply just received direct from the Springs.

Sold by the case or single dozen, at the lowest prices. Circulars and Pamphlets Free, at

JAMES E. BURNS & CO.'S DRUG STORE,

Corner of Penn and Sixth (old St. Clair) streets.

Help! help! cries the blood, I am impure. I know it, says the skin, for I am covered with blotches, pimples and sores. Bring up the Samaritan's Root and Herb Juices.

AN UNPROTECTED SYSTEM.

Do not fancy because you feel strong that you are impregnable to sickness. Whole neighborhoods are frequently prostrated at this season by malarious fevers. Vigorous muscles and strong sinews, broad shoulders and sound lungs, are no defence against the mephitic vapors of autumn. Frames which have withstood the summer heat may succumb now. Many an athletic man, whose family depends for its support on his industry, now lies prostrate, weak and helpless as a babe, under the periodical assaults of chills and fever, or bilious remittent fever. This could not be if all were wise enough to provide against such a contingency, by toning and fortifying the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This approved vegetable tonic is absolutely harmless, so that it is sheer folly not to take it as a safeguard at a season when diseases of the liver, the stomach, the bowels, and indeed all the visceral organs are generally prevalent. To keep the system in order and insure health, or to put it in order when this precaution has been neglected, is the duty of every human being who values life. For both these purposes Hostetter's Bitters is designed, and it answers both. Petty local dealers are endeavoring, in many parts of the country, to substitute preparations made of impure and dangerous materials in its stead. Give them a wide berth. They are prepared by unskilful experimentors, who want to turn a penny at the expense of the public health.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, September 30, 1871.

The money market has worked easily throughout the week, the demand being met in most cases without any advance upon the rates current during the past month. The line of discounts, however, is gradually enlarging to satisfy business wants, and should there be no coal boat rise soon, the amount of money locked up in coal will begin to tell upon the loanable reserve of the banks.

The week has not been an active one in stocks, though there is more changing hands than during the summer months. Bank stocks are firm, and Bridge and Gas shares are quickly taken up whenever offered. The list offered at McIlwaine's, for Tuesday evening next, will test the condition of the market.

The steadiness in the price of crude oil is beginning to have its effect upon oil stocks. Columbia still maintains its old place at the head, and justly deserves the pre-eminence its good management has won. The "Ralston" has been one of the most steady in announcement of dividends, and now we begin to hear of the Triumph again frequently. This company announces a dividend of five per cent. which, we learn, is the fourth dividend it has declared within eleven months. Quite flattering reports reach us of the present managements and future prospects of the Company, the reliability of which is best shown in the rise in the market value of the stock from twenty to seventy-five cents per share. Holders of Dalzell stock are informed that a dividend of ten cents per share has been declared. Robinson Brothers, No. 78 Fourth avenue, will collect it for any who will call on them. The daily production of oil is reported at 30 bbls., the larger part of it from the McElheny farm.

Robinson Bros., No. 78 Fourth avenue, furnish the following comparative quotations of bonds and stocks, from their latest advices by wire:

The produce dealers of St. Louis have adopted a system of grading corn into high mixed, low mixed, white, yellow and rejected, and a meeting to urge the same change has been held in Chicago, the two first named grades to take the place of No. 1 and No. 2.

—The Chicago Tribune, in referring to the wheat market, says: There is, however, little inducement to ship at present prices, as there is no margin between here and New York, and the more experienced operators are afraid of the break in prices which usually comes about this time of the year, especially as we have a large stock in store, and the farmers seem determined to send their grain in as rapidly as possible. It may be that the experience of former years will not be repeated this autumn, owing to the fact that Europe is buying largely, to make up its own deficiencies, which are great, while the Mississippi Valley has less of competition to fear from the wheat of the Pacific coast. These hopes on the one side, and fears on the other, are so nearly equally balanced that very many are undecided which way to operate.

We also clip the following from the same paper: It is stated that a large proportion of the current shipments from this city are being made by the warehouse proprietors, who are probably operating in this direction because they recognize the imperative necessity of making room for the new receipts of winter. Last Saturday there were nearly 5,200,000 bu of grain stored here, and the stock is rapidly increasing. At the present rate the bins will soon be filled up, even with the partial relief given by the warehousemen.

NEW YORK, September 30, 1871.

Gold firm, closing at 114⅞@114⅞. Loans were from one-eighth per cent. per day to seven per cent. gold per annum for use. Clearances $70,000,000 millions: exports to-day $143,000; for the week, $483,600. Governments dull and steady. Stocks opened firm after the first call, but declined slightly. Lake Shore has been the feature, selling up to 107⅛. Investment stocks are strong and higher. The market closed dull and strong, with an advance of from one half to seven-eights per cent. on the lowest prices made after the one o'clock session.

The Bank Statement is moderately favorable. The following are the changes:

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, September 30, 1871.

ASHES—Common Soda ash, 4@4⅛; refined 4⅛@4⅛; Pearls, 9; Pots, 7⅛; Nitrate Soda, 4⅛.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 30@33c.

BUTTER—The receipts continue large, and the market is completely glutted with the common and medium grades and it does not seem to be wanted at any price. Prime to choice roll is in fair demand with sales at 21@22 cts.

BROOM CORN—Is firmer but unchanged; small sales at 5@7 cts.

COUNTRY MEAT—There is rather more inquiry, and the stock in this market is very light. Country Lard unchanged at 8⅛@9.

CRANBERRIES—We can report sales, mostly in small lots, at $11@12 per bbl.

CANNED GOODS—There is some little stir in Peaches with sales (3 lb cans) at $3,00@3,25 per dozen. With this exception, the market is quiet but steady.

CORN MEAL—Is very quiet and the demand is mainly of a retail character; may be quoted in small lots at 85@90 cts per bushel.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2,50@3,00 per bbl. Rosendale, $4,00@4,50; Calcined Plaster, $4,25@4,50.

CHESTNUTS—The receipts as yet have been very small—we are reported sales at $11 per bushel. It is not probable, however, that this price will be maintained long, and country dealers should bear this in mind.

CHEESE—Continues firm, and the recent advance is fully maintained; Goshen, 14@14⅛; Factory, 13@13⅛; Dairy, 12@12⅛. We hear of a Baltimore party having bought 12,000 boxes in the Reserve just prior to the advance, and on which, at present prices, he can realize a profit of about $18,000. It was his heavy purchases that first excited the market at the factories.

CIDER—The arrivals continue very light for the season, and the market is quiet and unchanged, $5@8 per bbl, as to quality.

CARBON OIL—There is a fair jobbing trade but no change whatever in prices, 22⅛@23 for standard brands.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches may be quoted at 7⅛@8 for quarters, and 9@10 for prime halves. Nothing doing in apples. Blackberries, at 13@14 cts.

EGGS—Continue firm and with an increasing demand, and continued light receipts, prices are firm though unchanged; fresh may be fairly quoted at 25.

FRUITS—Apples in steady demand notwithstanding the arrivals are increasing, prices are still sustained, $3@3,50 per bbl for prime to choice. Quinces selling readily at $5@7 per bbl. Grapes, $4@6 cts per lb.

FLOUR—The flour market continues strong though there is no excitement, and the demand, as a general thing, is confined mainly to supplying immediate wants. Good spring extras, $7; choice (old) Minnesota baker's flour, $7.50; good to choice red winter $7@7.25.

GRAIN—The grain markets continue strong and the offerings comparatively light. Wheat—the receipts, outside of that consigned direct to the mills, are very meagre, and, with an active demand, prices have still further advanced; we can report sales of fair to prime red at $1,37@1,40, and white may be fairly quoted at $1,43@1.45—however, we are still below Cleveland, Toledo and Cincinnati, and a still further advance is probable. Oats continue steady with a fair business in the aggregate, but there is no change in prices; mixed, by the car load, 43@43⅛; and white, 44⅛@45; as noted in our last report, holders generally are indifferent sellers at quotations. Corn is scarce, and there is some inquiry for it; mixed shelled or ear may be quoted at 66@67. Rye—the offerings in this market continue meagre, and prices are well sustained; 85@88—sale 5 cars at 85. Barley is active; sales of some 30 cars of Western Spring at 82⅛@85 cts, and 1 car medium at 80. Fall Barley is very quiet and may be quoted, in the absence of sales, at 85@90.

GROCERIES—The grocery trade is fairly active for the season, though the market is devoid of any new features not already noted. Coffees continue very strong and somewhat excited, and there is every indication of a further appreciation. We learn from New York that importers continue very bullish—refusing to open negotiations with buyers who are not prepared to accept goods at the recent advance. Sugars continue dull and weak, and a further decline is confidently predicted; refinds have dropped to 12⅛ for standard A.'s, and 13⅛ for standard hards—in New York; as has been the case for some days, there is a strong pressure to sell on the part of importers and large holders, and, with every indication of a further depreciation, the demand is light, as buyers generally are holding off. Molasses, Syrups and Rice, quiet and unchanged.

SUGARS—Refined—Standard Hards, 14; A. 13⅛; B, 13; Ex. C, 12⅞; C. Yellow, 12⅛, Porto Rico Sugars—Choice, 11⅛; Prime, 11; Good, 10⅛. Cuba Sugars, 10@11⅛. Demarara, 12⅛@12⅛. Sugar House Sugars—Knight's Extra C. Yellow, 11⅛; C. C. 11⅛; other grades, 9@11. New Orleans Sugars—None in market.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 21; Prime, 20; Good, 19; Fair, 18@18⅛. Java, 25@28. Laguayra, 19@20. Mocha, 45. Roasted Coffee, pure, 22@23. Lower grades, 20@21.

SYRUPS—Havemyer & Elder's, 70. White Honey, 70. Lovering's, 60. Durant's, 70. Brune's, 70; other grades, 48@60. New Orleans Molasses, 60@68.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 9⅛; Good, 9⅛; Fair, 8⅛. Rangoon, 8@8⅛. Patna, 8.

HONEY—Steady at 25@30 cts per lb.

HIDES—Green Salted, 10⅛@11⅛; Green Butcher's, 8; Dry Flint, 21@22; Green Calf Skins, 14@15; Green Salted Calf, 17@18.

HUSKS—Quoted at 2⅛@2⅞ cts.

HEMP—Quoted at $165 per ton.

HAY—Baled is coming in more freely and the market is reported weak, though not quotably lower; $23@25 for fair to prime.

LIME—Perrysburg white, $2,00@2,25 per bbl; Cleveland $2,25; Eastern, $1,75.

MILLFEED—Is steady with a fair jobbing trade at $21@22 for Bran; $23@25 for Seconds; $28@35 for Middlings, and $43@45 for Oil Meal.

ONIONS—In good supply but unchanged; regular sales at $3,00@3,50 per bbl.

OIL—Lard Oil is firmer, and we now quote, in a jobbing way, at 75 for No. 1.

POTATOES—Irish, steady but unchanged; 65@70c per bushel. Sweets are still quoted at $2,00@3,00 per bbl for Baltimore's, and $3,25@3,50 for Jersey's.

POULTRY—The receipts of live Chickens within the past few days have been unusually large, and the market is over supplied, prices are lower; we now quote, by the coop, at 45@55 cts per pair, as to size.

PROVISIONS—Plain shoulders, 7⅛@8; ribbed sides, 8@8⅛; short ribbed sides, 8⅛@8⅞; clear sides, 9@9⅛; sugar cured shoulders, 10@10⅛; Breakfast Bacon, 11@11⅛; sugar cured Hams, 16@17. Prime kettle Lard, in tcs, 10@10⅛. Canvassed Dried Beef, 18@18⅛. Mess Pork, $14@14⅛.

PEA NUTS—Steady at 12@13 cts.

SUMAC—Sales Tennessee Sumac at 4⅛ cts.

WILLOWS—Quoted firm at 10 cts.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY Sept. 30, 1871.

Another week closes on a very dull petroleum market; it is true, it did stiffen up somewhat on two or three occasions, and, while at times there has been some inquiry, and, that too, at slightly improved prices, yet, so far as we could learn, there was not a single operation here this week. No doubt some of our refiners purchased crude above, but there has been nothing done in Pittsburgh deliveries for several weeks, and most of the operators are inclined to think that buying and selling crude oil in this market is entirely played out. Refined has been rather steadier this week, and, as already noted, there has, at times, been considerable inquiry, but there has not been a solitary sale, the prices bid not being big enough to induce refiners to sell; they could sell considerable oil for the remaining months of the year, as the most of them have but few contracts out beyond this month, but they can do nothing in the present condition of affairs, as crude continues higher relatively than refined.

Receipts crude this week, 26,332; last week, 23,334; January 1st to date, 861,538 same time last year, 811,136. Exports refined this week, 9,359; last week, 17,313; January 1st to date, 533,163; same time last year, 525,671; sales this week, none; last week, 2,000 bbls; 500 bbls refined.

REFINED.

Closed a shade firmer. September, 23⅛@24; October, 24⅛@24⅛; October to December, 24⅛@24⅛. No sales.

CRUDE.

Parker quoted a shade firmer, $4,65@4,67. Not enough doing in Pittsburgh deliveries to establish quotations.

PITTSBURGH CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, September 30, 1871.

RECEIPTS STOCK.

The receipts of stock at the Central Yards for the week ending to-day, were as follows:

	This week.	Last week.
Cattle	480 cars.	530 cars.
Hogs	202 "	204 "
Sheep	100 "	75 "
Horses	20 "	16 "
Mules	2 "	8 "
Total	804 "	833 "

CATTLE.

The receipts, although 50 cars less than last week, were again large, footing up 480 cars, or, calculating 18 head to the car, 8,640 head; the heaviest part of the receipts were in the early part of the week; since Wednesday the arrivals fell off considerably. The market all through has been slow, the supply being largely in excess of the demand, and prices, as compared with last week, are off fully ⅛c on common, and ⅛c on the best grades. The quality, considering the number, was poor, the largest part of the offerings consisting of very common stock, and the average price, as will be seen by reference to the report of sales, cannot be placed above 4⅛@4⅛ cents. Prime shipping steers, averaging 1,300 to 1,400 lbs, fat and smooth, sold quicker, and at relatively better prices than the common and medium grades, as the supply of the former was comparatively light, while of the latter kind there was a complete glut. Quotations may be fairly given at 4⅛@5⅛ for good to prime; 4@4⅛ for fair to good, and 3⅛@3⅞ for inferior to common. Following is a detailed report of the sales since Wednesday:

SHEEP.

The receipts of Sheep, as will be seen, were somewhat larger than those of last week, and they were generally very common in regard to quality, considerably below those of last week. Prime to extra sold readily at full prices, while common and inferior, of which the offerings largely consisted, were very dull, and as compared with last week ruled ⅛ to ⅛ lower. Prime to extra fine wooled sheep, averaging 95 to 100 lbs, quoted at 5⅛@5⅛; good 85 to 90 lbs, 4,40@4,60; coarse wool Indianas, 85 to 100 lbs, 4,75@5,15; common flesh and rough, 85@90 lbs, 4⅛@4⅛; as is usual, there is very little inquiry for common sheep at this season of the year.

HOGS.

The receipts of Hogs were again large, and during the first part of the week the market was a little heavy and prices ruled 10 to 15 cts per cwt lower; since then, however, under the influence of an improved demand, which was no doubt stimulated some by the cool weather, there has been a slight reaction and the decline above noted has been fully recovered. Yesterday and to-day the York buyers bought pretty liberally, and prices were run up from 4⅛@4⅛ to 4⅛@5 cts, an advance of fully 25 cts per cwt. and some of the Philadelphia men bought at an advance of from 15@20 cts per cwt; quotations for this latter grade of hogs may be fairly given at 5,10@5,25. Annexed is a detailed report of the sales since Wednesday noon.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, September 30.—The activity noticed during the month has greatly subsided. Still a moderate demand is noticeable for staple fabrics, at generally uniform rates. In Pequot A brown sheetings there is a noticeable decline. The price is reduced to 13⅛c, and Dwight star to 13c. Printing cloths are less active, and the market exhibits symptoms of weakness, sales at 7⅛c for standard cloths. Prints steady at 11⅛c for best makes, but the market is disturbed on account of the manner in which goods are protected and sold by agents, some giving ten days with five off, others thirty days with fourteen off, and others sixty days with three off, and hence many jobbers have signed a contract wherein they agreed to bind themselves to sell goods at agents' prices, less the usual one per cent. The best makes of spool cotton, such as Clark's and Coates, six-cord, are steady at 80c for regular, while three-cord domestic can be bought at 40c. In fancy woolens adapted to men's wear, the market has recently suffered a decline in prices on different makes, without any apparent cause. Goods not of a perishable nature retain their firmness.

CEMENT.

The Best--The Cheapest.

The Cement has acquired the reputation at the first in the country in hydraulic strength and uniform reliability.

It is now in general use from the lakes to the Gulf, most of the public works in the West and South being constructed with it.

The mills at Louisville having been enlarged and improved, can supply any demand, and though the Cement has always, for 30 years brought higher prices than competing brands, it is from this time the determination of the manufacturers, in order to largely increase the sale and extend the use of their Cement, to furnish it in the principal markets at prices which make it the most available and economical for all classes of work.

The large capacity of this Cement for taking sand renders it much the cheapest that can be used for buildings of any kind.

At the reduced prices in Pittsburgh its cost is not much above common lime, which makes it unquestionably to the interest of owners and builders that the foundation of every good house should be laid in this Cement.

A large stock of fresh Cement has just been received by barges from Louisville, and is offered at greatly reduced prices by the following dealers:

LAING & McKALLIP, 347 Liberty street.

J. B. CANFIELD, 141 First avenue.

W. W. WALLACE, 319 Liberty street

Johnstown Improved Hydraulic Cement,

This Cement is equal to any cement made in the United States, in many respects better than the Louisville Cement or the Rosendale, and decidedly better in all respects than the Uniontown or Akron Cement. It has a smaller amount of shrinkage, sets gradual, bears as much sand as any cement made, and gets as hard; stands frost well; it has all the qualities that hydraulic cement should have. The facilities for getting this cement is greater than all others in this market, less freight and fresher, which is an important matter. Having but a short distance to ship we can there fore sell cheaper than any other in the market.

RIVER NEWS.

—We clip the following, in regard to the conference of steamboatmen at Cincinnati with Secretary Boutwell, from the Cincinnati Commercial of Friday:

"The principal matter of interest to steamboatmen here yesterday was the visit of Hon. Geo. S. Boutwell, Secretary of the Treasury. About 10 a. m., Mr. B. crossed the Suspension Bridge, for the purpose of visiting the steamer Chas. Bodmann lying at the Kentucky shore. He was accompanied by Capts. John N. Shunk, John A. Williamson, Bryson Purcell, John Woodburn, Vincent Shinkle, Oliver P. Shinkle, R. M. Wade; Hons. A. F. Perry, Benj. Eggleston, Wm. E. Davis, and Messrs. J. W. Gaff, David Gibson and C. A. Partridge, in addition to the regular committee, the whole being under the direction of Capt. J. S. Wise, Superintendent of the Nashville Packet Company. After an inspection of the steamer, the party adjourned to the ladies cabin, where an interview was had concerning the new steamboat law, Capt. Vincent Shinkle acting as spokesman.

Concerning the law about the carrying of cotton and hay, the Secretary thought there could be no trouble.

Attention was next called to section 11, which the Secretary said could not be helped without going to Congress. The difference between the steerage passengers of Eastern steamers and the deck passengers of Western steamers was explained to him.

Clause 2 was then referred to, which the steamboatmen alleged gave more trouble than all the other appliances on board a steamboat. The Secretary, however, could not agree with them on this point and spoke of the preference given them by factors, &c. In fact, he thought they could not be given up. However, he could not control this, and felt confident Congress would not relieve them.

Reference was made to section 3, concerning the test given to boilers, the steamboat owners claiming that in the test-pressure now given, the strain was unnecessary and too great and in time rendered boilers more unsafe. They thought twenty-five pounds over the running pressure sufficient, and the Secretary acquiesced, but said the law could not be changed immediately, nor could it be changed by the Supervising Inspectors. He thought the best way for steamboatmen to act in the matter would be to send a committee to Washington to be present at the special meeting of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, to confer with them. The law, he said, was now in effect only theoretically, but January 1st was the time set for its strict enforcement.

The question was asked, If steamboatmen were compelled to comply with the law would they be held responsible in case of incompetency on the part of an employe? The Secretary read the clause following, giving it as his construction that he saw no reason why this should be so. The pilot, mate, and engineer were responsible for their own acts and misconduct, but if the owner should fail to comply with the law, and accident should result therefrom, then the owner could be held responsible.

In section 47 the Secretary could see no very great objection to the blowing of steam whistles in case of fog, save as a temporary annoyance to passengers, and as an extra expense of steam.

The matter of life preservers then came up, but the Secretary thought there would be no trouble about that. He proposed considering the subject at the special meeting soon to be held of Supervising Inspectors.

A steamboatman present asked if any special kind of a life preserver could be forced upon them by any inspector. His reason, he said, for asking this question was, that he understood one of the Inspecters had received a letter from A. M. Ingersol, President of the Washington Life Preserver Manufacturing, Cork Importing, & Cutting Company, offering a premium or per cent. to the Inspector on the sale of life preservers manufactured by his company.

The Secretary gave a prompt and decisive "no" to this question, and said emphatically the thing should be stopped, and a proper provision made to prevent such monopolies and such cases of blackmailing.

The Secretary promised the steamboatmen his assistance in the modification of the laws so far as it was consistent with his views of the matter, and the time allowed for the interview having expired, the party resumed their seats in the carriages, and were driven to the Chamber of Commerce.

—The New Orleans Times learns from the officers of the Thirteenth Era that the steamer Florence sunk on Thursday last at Ovide St. Andre's Woodyard, about fifty miles above Alexandria, and is supposed to be a total loss. Her value was $12,000. She had on board 100 head of cattle and 27 bales of cotton. There were no lives lost.

—Howard & Co., Jeffersonville, have one boat on the stocks, and commenced on Friday on a barge for the Louisville & Memphis Railroad, to be used on the Cumberland river. They report that the prospects are dull for boat building this coming winter.

—Freight on cotton out of Arkansas to Memphis is $5 per bale.

HOME NEWS.

Officers Elected.—At a meeting of Mechanics Lodge, I. O. O. F., held Saturday evening, the following officers were elected: N. G., W. H. Hope; V. G., S. W. Hill; Assistant Secretary, John E. Murphy; Representative to Grand Lodge, John A. Prince.

Crowded Out.—Quite a number of articles, prepared for to-day's GAZETTE, have been crowded out, on account of the unusual pressure on our local and advertising columns. Among other items of local and general interest we may mention a report of the Register's business for the past month, which has been deferred until to-morrow.

The New Bank, East Liberty.—We note with pleasure that the City Deposit Bank and Trust Company, East End, has paid a 5 per cent. dividend to its stockholders, besides placing a goodly sum to the credit of its surplus fund. This young institution manifests a vigorous life, and we know of no bank with better prospects of success in the future.

Northern Pacific Railroad Bonds.—The intrinsic value of these securities and the popular estimate of them, is strongly indicated by the fact, which we learn from private sources, that the sales effected by Jay Cook & Co., and their several agencies in the month of September alone have aggregated about one and a half million dollars. The conversions of Government 5-20s into Northern Pacifics are very numerous and rapidly increasing. Holders of Northern Pacific Railroad bonds are looking forward to the time not far in the future, when they will command a premium in the money markets of the old world and the new.

Fell Into a Vault.

Saturday evening the nurse in the family of Mr. George Cochran, No. 283 Federal street, Allegheny, was walking down the street with an infant in her arms, when she fell partially into a coal vault, the grating over which, had been taken out. The nurse fell in such a way, as, while not seriously injuring herself, to come with her weight on the child, by which its thigh bone was fractured. Doctors Pollock and Smith reduced the fracture and no serious consequences are apprehended.

Mercantile Library.

Attention is called to the quarterly meeting of the Young Men's Mercantile Library of this city, which takes place this evening at eight o'clock. The business which will be presented, is the report of the Committee on the revision of the constitution, and we understand several important changes have been made. These alterations must be approved at a quarterly meeting and ratified finally at the annual meeting. We hope there will be a full attendance of the membership.

Dedication of the High School.

On Friday, the 13th inst., the beautiful new High School building on Cliff street, will be dedicated to the cause of popular education with ceremonies of an imposing character. Under the chief-marshalship of W. R. Ford, Esq., the well known educator and disciplinarian, all the children of the Common Schools will form into procession on Wood street and march in order to the building, via Fifth and Wylie avenues, where addresses appropriate to the occasion will be delivered. Three stands for speaking will be erected. The orators have not yet been chosen. An instrumental and vocal concert will also be afforded. In the evening the massive building will be illuminated from ground floor to dome. The occasion promises to be full of interest and one marking a new and important era in our educational history.

Autumn Excursions to Colorado and Utah—Extraordinary Inducements.

The Atlantic and Pacific Excursion Company, whose trans-continental excursion of last summer was such a pronounced success, take pleasure in announcing to the readers of the GAZETTE three excursions to Salt Lake City, Denver, the Rocky Mountains, the gold and silver mining regions of Utah, Colorado, etc. The excursion trains will leave Chicago on the 5th, 10th and 17th of October, uniting at Omaha with excursion trains from Indianapolis and South, on the next day after the above dates respectively, and proceeding thence to to the appointed destinations. The trains will consist of the unrivalled Pullman parlor and sleeping coaches. The fare for the round trip is extraordinarily low, namely: To Salt Lake City and return, $120; to Denver and return, $68; to Salt Lake City and Denver and return, $132—that is to say, about half fare, and even less from many points. Corresponding rates to Chicago from towns and stations on most railway lines leading here. Tickets will be good FOR SIXTY DAYS, and the holder can stop over at any desired point on the return trip without extra cost. These opportunities and inducements are not approached by any other Western excursion now or hitherto advertised. The season selected is the most delightful of the year. For tickets and particulars apply at corner Lake and Clark streets, Chicago, or address W. M. Jones, Manager, Indianapolis, Ind.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. Edwin Adams will be the attraction at this house during the present week. This evening he will appear in the excellent military comedy of "Ours," which will be presented with splendid scenery, and with the full strength of the company, aided by one of our crack military companies.

FIFTH AVENUE OPERA HOUSE.—The patrons of this establishment will be pleased to learn that Miss Lucy Rushton, a star of the first magnitude, will commence an engagement this evening, commencing in a new sensation entitled "Red Hands." The piece has had a successful run in New York, and is highly spoken of by the press of that city.

LIBRARY HALL.—The Female Vienna Lady Orchestra troupe will appear this evening in Library Hall. The troupe consists of twenty handsome and talented young ladies, together with the wonderful child soprano, Anna Elzer, the great baritone, Jacob Muller, and the celebrated pianist, Prof. M. Fabri. The troupe will doubtless draw good houses during its stay.

THE RINK.—One of the great attractions for the present week will be the Industrial Fair at the Keystone Rink, in Allegheny. The proceeds of this exhibition are to be devoted to the relief of the poor, and hence the Rink should be well patronized. Each evening from ten to twelve o'clock a grand hop will be given.

ROBBED BY HIS WIFE.

A Saloon Keeper's Better Half and Eight Hundred Dollars "Vamose the Ranch"—Successful Search of the Owner.

Rudolph Prysl, formerly keeper of a saloon in Allegheny. From that place he removed to Jersey City, and established himself in the same business there and conducted his calling in a manner that greatly enchanced his pecuniary condition, and placed a handsome account, to his credit, in bank. About a week ago, he had occassion to draw out, for some purpose, $800. After taking it from the bank, he took it to his home and, placing it in what he considered a secure place, he retired for the night. When he got up the next morning, he discovered that his wife was missing and, upon looking for his money, he discovered that it to had taken wing. After considerable time spent in search of the missing woman, he finally traced her to Allegheny, where he arrived on the trail, yesterday morning early. He repaired immediately to the house of his wife's mother, who with some trepidation informed him that that her daughter was living with a man named Christ Grossinklaus. After assuring himself as to the credibility of the story, he repaired to the office of Mayor Callow and lodged an information, charging Grossinklaus with adultery and another charging Mrs. Pryel with larceny. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the accused.

STILL ANOTHER.

Almost a Suicide—A Woman Attempts to Put an End to Her Life.

A fine looking, well dressed lady and gentleman, apparently about thirty-five or forty years of age each, on Friday, made their appearance at the Central Hotel, registering as E. E. Robinson, and wife, St. Louis, Mo. They were assigned to room 28. The wife of the proprietor, Mr. Barr, noticed their singular conduct on Saturday, and thought they had been drinking, but said nothing, till yesterday morning, when her suspicions were confirmed, and she told her husband that they were drinking and must be ordered to leave. Mr. Barr concluded, however, to allow them to remain until Monday. It was noticed on Saturday evening and Sunday morning that they were quarreling in their room, but, however, they occupied seats together at the breakfast table yesterday morning. About one o'clock yesterday afternoon, the maid was passing the ladies bath room, when she heard some one moaning within. She immediately called the bell boy, who crawled through the transom—the door being locked—into the bath room. He found the lady lying in the bath-tub, face downwards, with a towel tightly wrapped around her neck, and the water turned on, evidently intending to put an end to her life by drowning and strangulation. Her condition was such that it was thought she might have taken poison, and Mrs. Barr had her taken to her room and Dr. Arthurs summoned. The Doctor stated that she had not taken poison but was simply intoxicated.

POLITICAL.

To the Republican Voters of the First and Second Assembly Districts (City of Pittsburgh).

The Republicans of the First and Second Assembly Districts (City of Pittsburgh) have a great responsibility resting upon them in the approaching election. Pittsburghers now only vote for one assemblyman, instead of six as heretofore. The Democratic candidates have sunk party, make no political issue, but with bold, persistent perserverance, worthy of a better cause, they have invaded our ranks, and are securing promises from thoughtless members of our party, who do not think of the probable result of their hasty action. "A complimentary vote" is all Messrs. Irvin and Liddell ask for—a mere natural desire "to run ahead of their ticket." Republicans be not deceived by this old Democratic trick; it is a deep laid scheme to catch you napping, and elect two Democratic members from Pittsburgh, thus throwing the control of the next Legislature into the hands of the Democracy.

To affect their object, the Democratic candidates and their friends are, with systematic thoroughness, canvassing, and making lists of 700 to 800 Republicans in each Legislative District, who they wish to vote for them, hoping with their help, and a light Republican vote polled, to secure their election.

It is only necessary to warn the Republicans of Pittsburgh of the danger. Republicans, Pittsburgh must not be represented by Democrats. The candidates of our party, Messrs. Taylor and Edwards, are unexceptionable; their integrity and fitness for the position are unquestionable; nominated without opposition, they were the choice of our whole party.

Republicans, the responsibility rests with you. Work, organize, get out every voter. In this, our first election as independent districts, avoid the humiliation of electing a Democrat from old Republican Pittsburgh. No objection can be made to your candidates; a vote for Irwin or Liddell will be a virtual indorsement of the Democratic party—a "new departure" which will be trumpeted all over our land, and can be prevented only by earnest, thorough work.

PITTSBURGH COUNCILS.

Special Meeting Saturday—The Water Ordinance—Report of the City Hall Commission, &c.

Pittsburgh Councils held a special meeting Saturday afternoon, September 30, 1871.

SELECT COUNCIL.

A. H. GROSS .... President.
E. S. MORROW .... Clerk.

Select Council was called to order at 2:15 P. M. The following-named members were present: Messrs. Aiken, Burgwin, Chislett, Coffin, Donnelly, Gallaher, Glenn, Herron, Hoeh, House, E. P. Jones, Isaac Jones, Kehew, Laufman, Liddell, Littell, Lloyd, Marshall, McCune, Miller, Morrow, Murdock, Murray, Neely, Rafferty, Schmidt, Seely, Shipton, Wainwright, Riddell, Wilson, Gross, President.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The President announced that the special meeting had been called at the instance of the Ordinance Committee, for the purpose, he presumed, of considering the Water Ordinance.

THE CITY HALL COMMISSION.

Mr. MCCUNE presented the report of the City Hall Commission, as follows:

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with your request at the last meeting of Councils, I herewith submit a full and complete statement of the expenditures in constructing City Hall till date; also the contracts made for the erection and cost of completing the same. For our authority you are respectfully referred to the Resolution of Councils of October 29, 1866, authorizing the purchase of the ground, and the Act of Assembly, March 1, 1867, creating the Commission, and the supplement of April 6, 1870.

Annexed you will find the account of expenditures and transactions as checked from the City Treasury, showing the amount of each check, when drawn, in whose favor, and on what account, embracing the purchase money for the ground, and interest thereon, provided for by Councils, and also interest paid and provided for by proper legislation, together with the temporary loan, and not properly chargeable to construction.

Attached is a full statement of the contracts entered into for the completion of the building, which taken from the amount allowed ($500,000) leaves a balance of $25,350.67 in favor of construction.

Two hundred bonds were issued of one thousand dollars each, bearing seven per cent. interest, all of which have been sold and the proceeds applied in accordance with the act of Assembly.

The building will be ready for occupancy on or before the first day of January 1872.

The commissioners ask your honorable bodies to appoint a special committee to audit our accounts, scrutinize our contracts, and examine our vouchers all of which are on hand, none of them having been stolen.

Respectfully submitted,
W. PHILLIPS,
President of the Board of Commissioners.

In C. C., same date, amended by striking out "in all the city papers," and inserting "in all the morning and evening papers of the city.
H. MCMASTERS, Clerk.

The report was received and ordered to be printed in all the daily papers.

THE WATER ORDINANCE.

The water ordinance was then taken up.

Mr. BURGWIN claimed that the ordinance was on its third reading and final passage for the reason that it was the same ordinance that had been previously considered, and was now preseented in an amended form. He made the point that the ordinance had been virtually read twice. It could not be claimed that because it was read in the joint session, it was not read before the Select Council. This branch was just as much Select Council in joint session as it was in separate session.

Mr. LITTELL said that the ordinance was only upon its second reading, admitting that it had been read before Select Council in joint session.

Mr. RIDDELL said the ordinance had never been read in Select Council, and was now upon its first reading.

Mr. BURGWIN—The gentleman is mistaken.

Mr. RIDDELL—I am not mistaken. The ordinance has never been read in this branch, even by its title. I submit the question to the chair.

The PRESIDENT—The chair decided in joint session that the ordinance was new business, and it cannot, therefore, be considered as read twice or even once.

Mr. BURGWIN reiterated his argument that when the ordinance was read in joint session, it was read before Select Council. He also contended that it was the original ordinance in an amended form.

Mr. ISAAC JONES—Who ever heard of a legislative body transacting business in joint session?

Mr. BURGWIN—The general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church has been passing laws in joint session for a hundred years. That body is composed of some of the ablest men in the land.

Mr. RIDDELL—The gentleman said at first that the joint session was merely held for the purpose of discussing the ordinance, and not to take action upon it. Now he seeks to take advantage of the action of the joint session.

The President decided that the ordinance was now upon its first reading.

Mr. COFFIN moved that the ordinance be read the first time by its title.

Mr. AIKEN said there was an act of assembly which required that ordinances be read fully and distinctly three times.

The motion of Mr. Coffin was lost.

Mr. E. P. JONES moved that the ordinance be fully read for the information of members, which motion prevailed.

The clerk then read the ordinance.

Mr. BURGWIN—I now move that the ordinance be read a second time by its title.

The PRESIDENT—That can only be done under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. AIKEN moved to suspend the rules. Carried.

Mr. BURGWIN called for the opinion of the City Solicitor as to the legality of the ordinance.

The City Solicitor, Mr. Slagle, said that before reading his opinion he desired to state that he was not responsible for the provisions of any ordinance. It was his duty simply to give his opinion as to the legal validity of ordinances. The gentleman then read his opinion, as follows:

OPINION OF THE CITY SOLICITOR.

PITTSBURGH September 30th, 1871.
CITY ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

To the Ordinance Committee.

GENTLEMEN:—In accordance with your request, I herewith submit to you my opinion as to the validity of the proposed ordinance providing for the erection of new Water Works for the city of Pittsburgh.

As to the right of the city to construct Water Works there can be no doubt, even without express legislative authority, a municipal corporation has the right to provide for supplying the inhabitants with water, and this power is expressly confered upon the city of Pittsburgh, by the 10th section of the act of April 6, 1867, known as the Consolidation Act, and recognized by the subsequent acts authorizing the city to borrow money for that purpose. By the 5th section of the act, incorporating the city of Pittsburgh, approved March 18, 1816, the power of the corporation is vested in the Select and Common Councils of the city, and by the 24th Section of the same Act, they are authorized to vest in the Mayor the appointment of such officers as they may think expedient for the well ordering and governing the city. By the Seventh Section of the Act of 1867, the corporate authority is vested in the Mayor, Councils and officers named in the Act, and such as may be appointed under its authority; and by the 24th Section it is provided that the city Councils shall possess all the legislative powers granted in this Act, and other corporate powers of the city not herein, or by some ordinance of the city Councils, made in pursuance of this Act, confered on some officer of the corporation. They shall have control of the finances, and of all property real and personal, belonging to the city. They are further, by the same Section, authorized to appoint officers and prescribe their duties.

These are the express provisions of the Acts of Assembly relating to the matter. It seems clear that the power to provide for the construction of Water Works would by these Acts be vested in the Councils of the city, and the only question is, as to the manner of exercising the power.

By resolution of March 31, 1870, a Board of Examination was appointed composed of the City Engineer, the Superintendent of the Water Works and Messrs. Slataper, Morehead and Berry, to make a careful and through examination of the various places suggested for Water Works, and report the result of their deliberations to Councils. The Water Committee was instructed to employ a competent Hydraulic Engineer and Assistants.

The Board appointed, reported two places, one for a supply from the Allegheny river, and the other from the Monongahela river. These plans described the location, size and character of the works, the reservoirs, mains, &c., with an estimate of the costs of the entire work.

By resolution of July 16, 1871, the Allegheny river plan was adopted by Councils.

It is proposed now, to provide for the erection of said works, under the direction and supervision of five citizens designated as Commissioners.

The first question which arises is: Have Councils the power to make such appointments?

It is a well settled principle that the Councils of a municipal corporation have no right to delegate powers of a legislative character, such powers are conferred on Councils and they alone can exercise them. But there are a certain class of duties which must necessarily be performed by others, because they cannot conveniently be done by councils in their corporate capacity, as to these Councils determine either by general or special ordinance or resolution, what is to be done and impose on others the duty of executing their will. These duties may be imposed upon officers who have charge of some particular branch of the public service or upon agents employed for the special duty. Though Councils may provide for the appointment of all officers necessary for the well ordering and government of the city, I know of no principle which prevents them from appointing agents for a special duty, provided the duty is in its nature ministerial and not legislative.

A fair illustration of the two classes of duties is found in this matter of public Water Works. Councils must determine that water works shall be built, and possibly they alone can determine, the location and general character of the works, when they are built Councils must adopt rules and regulations for their government, enact laws for their protection, levy rents, and provide for their collection; but as to the matter of erecting the works, they connot superintend and construct it in a body, this must necessarily be delegated to some person charged with the duty of exercising their will. This duty need not be devolved upon one of their own committees or upon one of the regular officers of the city. I think they may if they see proper appoint a special agent or agents for that purpose. I am of the opinion thefore that councils may appoint a commission for that purpose.

That there is a difference between officers and agents is recognized by the 26th Section of the Act of April 6th 1867. And also by some of the reported cases in which the liabilities of corporations have been passed upon.

I regard the persons designated as commissioners in this ordinance not as officers but as agents, and that they may therefore be members of Councils or not, as Councils may determine.

As to the right of Councils to appoint for a time extending before their own tenure of office, I can see no difficulty, for the reason that they do not attempt by contract or otherwise to restrict the control of any subsequent Councils.

The ordinance as long as it remains unrepealed would be binding, but any subsequent Councils may repeal it or remove the Commissioners.

The only question that remains, is this, does the ordinance confer upon the Commissioners any power of a legislative character, or are the duties imposed ministerial?

It will not be necessary to refer to all the provisions of the ordinance, but to such as to which any question might be raised.

As to the appointment of officers and assistants as provided by the 3d Section, the Commissioners are limited to the appointment of those who shall have been approved and authorized by Councils.

The contract for the purchase of real estate, or the taking of same under the authority of the Act of March 15, 1871, is subject to the control of Councils.

The preparation of detailed plans and the making of contracts as provided for by the 7th Section seems to be nothing more than the execution of the plans which have been adopted by Councils and which they by this ordinance direct to be carried out.

In adopting the plan and ordaining that the work shall be constructed, Councils have performed the legislative function imposed upon them. The duty of the Commissioners as set forth in the Section is merely to prepare plans for construction or working plans, to advertise for proposals and to accept the lowest and best bid which may be offered.

It seems to me this is no more a legislative function than those which have been and are continually exercised in this and other cities in the making of contracts for public improvements and for supplies furnished to the city for various purposes, this is usually done by committees of councils or by officers or employees.

When a committee or an officer of a corporation enters into a contract, they do so simply as agents of the city, by virtue of the powers delegated to them by councils, either by general ordinance or special authority for that purpose.

The power conferred upon this Commission is similar in its character, and if councils do not have the power to delegate this authority to them, it must be because they have not the right to delegate the power at all, and the same principle would render void all contracts made through committees of councils or other officers or agents of the corporation.

There may be a question as to the provision authorizing the controller to certify warrants upon claims approved by the Commissioners. I think that this provision does not make any material change in the mode of disbursing money, as the money must be first appropriated by councils, as the Controller is not authorized to certify warrants beyond the money so appropriated and as the sums paid must be upon contracts already made under authority from councils and for which the city is liable.

The only other objection that has been suggested is that this ordinance violates the provisions of the act of April 6th, 1850, section 4, limiting the indebtedness of the city.

The provisions of that act are very loose, and prevents the increase of the city indebtedness in any manner whatever, and Councils would be prohibited from entering into a contract which would have that effects. The objection rests upon the fact that the water works, as proposed, will cost over $2,000,000, while he city is only authorized to borrow money to the amount of $1,250,000.

The plan, as adopted, includes three different parts not necessarily dependent upon each other, and which need not be constructed at the same time, though all will be necessary when the entire system is perfected. Councils could not enter into contracts beyond the amount for which provision shall be at the time made, and the Commissioners, of course, cannot legally do what Councils might not do. They will, therefore, be compelled to stop when the money provided by law has been exhausted, and it is presumed that the contracts will be so made as to render the work done of present use.

As a further reply, it may be said that, though Councils have authority to borrow $1,250,000 and no more, these powers are not limited to the amount. They cannot make contracts beyond the amount of money authorized by law, but in addition to the money which they had authorized to borrow, they have the right to raise money by taxation, and as those works will require several years for their construction, it is to be presumed that a portion of the cost will be provided for in that way.

I have not been able in this opinion to give all the reasons for my conclusion, but may say that I have given the matter careful examination and consideration, and believe that they are sustained by well established principles.

I am therefore of the opinion that the powers conferred by the ordinance are in accordance with law, and that the provisions of the ordinance are valid.

Respectfully yours,
J. F. SLAGLE, City Attorney.

Mr. BURGWIN—I now move that the rules be suspended to put the ordinance upon its third reading and final passage.

Mr. AIKEN. I call for the ayes and nays.

The call being sustained, the clerk called the roll with the following result:

Ayes—Messrs. Aiken, Burgwin, Chislett, Gallaher, Herron, Hoeh, House, E. P. Jones, Kehew, Laufman, Liddell, Lloyd, Marshall, Morrow, Murray, Rafferty, Schmidt, Seely, Gross, President—19.

Nays—Messrs. Coffin, Donnelly, Isaac Jones, Littell, McCune, Miller, Murdock, Shipton, Wainwright, Riddell, Wilson—11.

So the motion of Mr. Burgwin was lost.

Select Council then adjourned.

H. W. OLIVER, JR. .... President.
H. MCMASTER .... Clerk.

A quorum was present in this branch at two and a half o'clock.

The Clerk called the roll, the following members answering:

Messrs. Albietz, Anderson, Arthurs, Barr, Batchelor, Belfore, Beymer, Brown, Buffum, Carroll, Caskey, Chalmers, Cohen, Duff, David L Fleming, John Fleming, Lewis J. Negley, Prince, Rosewell, Rowley, Seiferth, Sims, Smith, Snodgrass, Watson, and President H. W. Oliver, Jr.

Minutes read and approved.

OBJECT OF THE MEETING.

The President stated that the meeting had been called at the request of the Ordinance Committee—the order coming in proper form, and the call, accordingly having been then issued by the Presidents of Councils. The special business for the meeting was the consideration of the Water Commission ordinance.

The Water Commission ordinance not having been sent in from Select Council, Mr. Batchelor moved to proceed with other business, under the rules until the special business was on the table.

Mr. CHALMERS moved to amend" that the rules be suspended to admit of the introduction of other business, Carried.

Mr. MATTERN moved that the Clerk be instructed to notify Select Council that Common Council was ready to meet with them in Joint Session to consider the business for which they had been called together. Carried.

THE CITY HALL COMMISSION

Pending the coming in of the members of the Select Branch the report from the City Hall Commission, (as presented from S. C.) was read. In S. C., the paper had been accepted and ordered to be printed in all the city papers.

A MOTION WAS MADE TO CONCUR.

Mr. SNODGRASS moved to strike out all but the official papers. He thought it would be a useless expense to publish it in all the papers; it would cost nothing to publish it in the official papers.

Mr. D. L. FLEMING said we could order it to be published in the newspapers authorized to do the city printing at no extra cost; it would be printed in all the other dailies anyhow, as matter of news. He didn't see the necessity of going to any unnecessary expense about it.

President OLIVER said the Democratic paper had been charging that there was stealing going on somewhere in the work, and had thus been trying to make political capital out of it. He thought it ought to be published in all the papers and the Commissioners placed square on the record.

Mr. CHALMERS moved to lay the motion to amend on the table.

After some discussion, the motion was carried by a vote of twenty-one to fourteen.

The question then recurred on the motion to concur.

Mr. MCCANDLESS asked inasmuch as there had been objection made, if it would not be necessary to suspend the rules, as this publication in all the papers would require an appropriation of money.

President OLIVER decided the point well taken; he had intended to state that when the motion to concur was to be voted on.

Mr. MCCANDLESS then was called to the chair, and

President OLIVER moved to suspend the rules to consider the report. He was proceeding to speak when

Mr. CHALMERS rose to a point of order, that no discussion was allowed on a motion to suspend.

The Chair called for the reading of the rule, which being read was found to sustain the point of order taken.

President OLIVER then withdrew his motion and moved to suspend the rules so as to allow a discussion on the motion to suspend. This was carried.

President OLIVER then made a statement in reference to the report. The Commission, of which he had only been a member for a short time, had been indirectly charged with fraud. Two of the newspapers especially had charged publicly that the Commissioners had been "stealing" money. That was the English of it, and there was no use of putting it in any other light. It was no use of the Commissioners to go before the people and say they had not been doing so. Those who knew them personally, he had an impression, would not need them to make a refutation, but the people who did'nt would be better satisfied with the figures. All that the Commission asked was to have their report published. Let the people see where all the money went to. There were the accounts open to inspection. This matter did not alone interest the Commission but the Councils. Councils had ordered the work to be done, and if it cost more than was expected, they had the responsibility as they had ordered the work to be done all along and it was done according to orders. Not a dollar had been misspent; every contract had been let to the lowest bidder. In some cases where the Commission were anxious to give the work to home mechanics, they could not do so and had to give them to some from other cities whose bids were lower. Not an extra dollar had been spent. In other large buildings like this the "extras" sometimes footed up considerably.

Mr. ROWLEY—How much did City Hall, New York, cost?

President OLIVER—Why, one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars—for the plastering alone. (Laughter.)

Mr. WALLACE—What did Major Hoge cost the government?

President OLIVER—Oh well, he was the son of an old Democrat and that was a mistake (laughter). But I think we ought to have this printed in all the city papers Our. Democratic friends are trying to make capital out of it and let us give them all the facts. I move to suspend the rules, on the motion to concur.

The motion was carried.

A motion was then made to concur.

Mr. SNODGRASS moved to strike out "ordered" and insert "permitted." He did'nt believe in paying twenty cents a line when work could be done for nothing. Laid on the table.

Mr. CHALMERS moved to insert "daily" papers.

President OLIVER urged that it be published in all the city papers—that every tax-payer might see where his money went to.

Mr. MCCANDLESS—How about the Presbyterian Banner and Methodist Advocate?

Mr. COHEN thought the Councils as guardians of the reputation of the Commission ought to publish the report in all the papers. If he had the authority he would even go further, and have it published in pamphlet form and a copy furnished to every tax-payer.

After some further discussion the action of S. C. was amended so as to authorize the publication of the report in all the city daily papers, with which endorsement the paper was sent back to Select Council

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

Mr. SNODGRASS presented a communication from the agents of the "Babcock Fire Extinguisher," signed by a number of gentlemen who had witnessed a trial of the extinguisher and were satisfied with the test.

The communication was accompanied by a resolution that it be referred to the Fire Commission, with a request that they provide a place for a test of the extinguishsr in Pittsburgh, provided that the city was put to no expense.

PETITIONS, RESOLUTIONS, &C.

Mr. D. L. FLEMING presented a petition, numerously signed, for a gas lamp at the corner of Old and Fifth avenues. Referred to the Gas Committee.

Mr. CHALMERS, a resolution for a gas lamp at the corner of Crawford and Reed streets. Referred to Gas Committee.

Also, resolution for flagstone crossing at corner of Clark and Crawford streets. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. SNODGRASS, a resolution for crossing at corner of Elm and Wylie streets. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. MCCANDLESS, petition for opening, grading and paving of Granville street. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. SMITH, resolution instructing the Committee to advertise for proposals for furnishing gas lamps and posts for the East End Gas Committee. Referred to Gas Committee.

FRANKSTOWN AVENUE.

President OLIVER called attention to the statement made, (and the suit entered,) that Common Council had illegally passed, the ordinance for the creation of Commissioners on the improvement of Frankstown avenue. He denied all this, and said if the gentleman who had brought this suit had taken the trouble to examine the records they would have found their mistake. They could have him any time in Court as a witness. The ordinance was passed legally—first the motion to suspend the rules was put and carried, then the ordinance was passed. This was the rule always, in Common Councils, and he repudiated the insinuation that they were accustomed to pass ordinances recklessly.

POLICE IN SIXTEENTH WARD.

Mr. Smith called up the resolution in reference to the assignment of two police in the 16th ward, on Penn avenue, between Fortieth and Pearl streets. The resolution was passed.

Mr. McCandless called up the petition of Thomas Graham with a resolution authorizing the City Solicitor to release the lien of judgment in favor of the city against Graham and others, on property in the 13th ward.

The City Solicitor was called on, and made a statement in reference to the matter.

The resolution was passed.

Adjourned.

POLICE NOTES.

Brief Mention of Criminalities on Friday.

Before Alderman Taylor, Ann O'Connor charged Sarah Welsh with assault. Mrs. O'Connor was charged with surety of the peace by Ann McKenna. A hearing was had in both cases, and the opinion of the Alderman withheld until Monday.

Bryan Barrett came before Alderman O'Donnell and charged Anthony and Patrick Munovan with assault and battery. The parties reside in Manchester. He was held for a hearing.

Edward O'Donnell, who was arrested at the instance of Fire Marshal Butler for cutting the ropes at the Fifth avenue fire, was sent up for ten days by Mayor Brush.

Officer Daniel Silvius had his attention directed to a man of unprepossessing appearance, trying to pawn a full piece of blue broadcloth. He was unable to explain matters satisfactorily and the officer took him to the Mayor's office where he gave his name as Wm. Figg, and said he lived on Sixth street, near Plum, in Cincinnati. He said he bought the cloth in New York. The prisoner is locked up, and the cloth is at the office, awaiting an owner.

For some time past proprietors of grocery stores in the lower part of the First ward, Allegheny, have been subject to considerable anneyance and loss by the depredations of boys. Officer Cornelius succeeded in arresting three of the offenders. They are now in the lock-up awaiting a hearing. They are between twelve and fifteen years of age.

John M'Multz, who keeps a livery stable on Fifth avenue, entered suit for surety of the peace against John Collins. The accused came to deponent's place of business, called him bad names, and drew a butcher knife upon him. Alderman O'Donnell, issued a warrant for the arrest of Collins.

Joseph Mist, watchman at the Panhandle railway depot, and quite an old man, appeared before Alderman O'Donnell and preferred a charge of assault and battery against the driver of wagon No. 26. The name of the accused was not known to the prosecuter, but he is described as a large man. It is alleged that he knocked the old watcman down, and abused him, cutting an ugly gash in his head. A warrant was issued.

Mayor Brush issued a warrant for Owen Conroy charged by Luke Martin with assault and battery.

W. P. Andrews, charged James Henderson with the larceny of a pair of pants worth $15. Warrant issued.

Jos. Niste, charged Thos. Todd with aggravated assault and battery. Mayor Brush issued a warrant for the accused.

John Frazier came before Mayor Callow, and charged a boy named Thomas Bayne, with the larceny of twenty-five keys from the office of Frazier Bros. The loss of the keys render the locks, which are valued at $50, useless. A warrant was issued.

Brief Mention of Criminalities.

Small, the jewelry robber, who was to have had a hearing Saturday, was recommitted until ten o'clock this morning, when he will have a hearing before Mayor Brush.

There were forty-two cases in the lock-up on Saturday night.

James Tyle and Chas Conway got into a Western avenue car on Saturday, and being drunk and noisy, the conductor called an officer and had them arrested. Yesterday morning, they paid $23 75 each for their little fun.

Saturday night, a negro, named Wm. Turner, stole $10 from a man named Wm. Smith, in Pittsburgh. He was pursued by Smith to Allegheny, where he was lost sight of. The case was put into the hands of officers Atkinson and Wilson, of Mayor Callow's force, who yesterday sighted their man on Ohio avenue, and, after an exciting chase, lodged him in the lock-up.

For fine and fashionable furniture, the latest styles, best finish, and at fair prices, call at Weckesser, Schienle & Co.'s furniture warerooms, Nos. 52 and 53 South Diamond street, Allegheny. We examined their stock ourselves, and were surprised to see, not only the latest, but most elegant styles of furniture, from New York and other places, in these warerooms. We think their stock of fine furniture is equal to any in the country, and surpasses anything we have ever seen in that line in the two cities. We would, therefore, advise those wanting furniture to give them a call, examine their goods, and we are sure they will not only be pleased, but find the members of this firm fair in their dealings and gentlemen in every way. Being practical mechanics themselves, our citizens should encourage them for keeping the finest and latest eastern styles always on hand.

THE American Manufacturer, of this city, comes to us with widened columns and brimful of industrial notes and editorials. It is the finest journal, both in regard to appearance and contents, devoted to manufactural interests in this country, and we are glad to note its prosperity. Messrs. Mac Connell, Wood & Co. deserve much credit for the style in which the paper is gotten up.

MR. ALEXANDER SPEER of the well-known firm of Hall & Speer succeeds Mr. Springer Harbaugh, as President of the "Pittsburgh Forge & Iron Company." The latter gentleman declined a re-election on account of his time being so fully occupied with enterprises with which he is connected. Mr. Speer is a gentleman of large executive ability and business experience and will prove a most worthy successor to Mr. Harbaugh.

THE beautiful service of the Catholic church known as the "Forty hours devotion," in commemoration of the forty days confinement of the body of Christ in a sepulchre, was inaugurated with much pomp in St. Paul's Cathredral yesterday morning. An imposing procession was held in the aisles of the church, participated in by all the congregation. The altar was brilliantly illuminated and bedecked thoroughly with evergeens and flowers. The devotion will be continued this evening.

THE boat race on Saturday afternoon between Louther and Kaye, on the Monongahela course, terminated in the custom of a few years ago, by a foul. Kaye claims that Louther fouled him while turning the stake-boat. There was no decision given at the time, but the men met again Saturday night, when the referee, Mr. Scharff, concluded that the wisest thing they could do was to row the race again, over the same course, this afternoon, between the hours of four and five o'clock, and all bets are declared off.

THE BEAVER TRAGEDY.

A Statement of the Particulars.

Beaver county is still agitated over the painful Erb tragedy and various opinions prevail regarding it. In order to present a fair statement of the dreadful affair we have gathered the following authentic facts from the friends of John Nicholas Erb, the deceased husband and present them as the true version of the tragedy. It appears that just before breakfast on Sunday morning the 17th of September, Mr. Erb quarreled with his wife and she, who was a powerful woman, threatened to use her hands on him. He became greatly excited and in the frenzy of the moment lifted a boot and struck her a violent blow on the neck and felled her to the floor. She soon recovered however, and quiet being restored, the entire family sat down to breakfast. Erb refused to take a cup of coffee proffered by his wife, and the children did not drink of it as was their custom in the mornings. Mrs. Erb, bleeding from the wound on the back of her neck told her daughter that she was going to die from the blow, and apparently in pain retired to her room and locked herself in. The husband went to church. On his return he wanted to get a physician but Mrs. Erb stubbornly refused to have one called and asserted repeatedly that she would die from the effect of the blow from the boot. She died that evening. Erb was much frightened, and calling his daughter, a girl eighteen years of age, counselled with her what to do. They came to the conclusion to give it out that she died from natural causes and to say naught about the difficulty. Erb apparently believed that he "had killed his wife by striking her. After the body was buried suspicion was directed towards Erb, and the corpse was exhumed. The wound was found to be of a trivial nature, but the stomach contained arsenic. The children having denied knowing anything about the quarrel in the first place, and Erb himself concealing the facts, made the suspicion of his having committed murder strong, and he was terribly frightened and excited. When he learned that poison had been found in his wife's stomach he told his daughter that he could never outlive the suspicion that he had murdered the woman. He went to Rochester, bought some strychnine and, returning home, took a dose and died almost instantly.

The theory is that his wife took the arsenic which was in the house for some months, and used by her to poison rats, and died with the secret. Her husband, thinking he had killed her in the quarrel, made the situation all the worse and got himself entangled in circumstantial facts by endeavoring to keep quiet the particulars of her death, and when the truth was developed, he took his own life in despair. The daughter assured our informant that she warmed up the same coffee out of the pot from which her mother had filled her cup at breakfast, and served it at supper, and all the children and the father drank of it with no ill effect whatever.

The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict that Mrs. Erb had "died from the effect of arsenical poison administered by some person or persons unknown," and that Mr. Erb "died from poison administered by himself."

Mr. Erb was a thrifty and temperate farmer aged 47 years, and his wife was a good hard working and intelligent woman. Both enjoyed the respect of all their neighbors. They were first cousins to each other and were married in April 1851, and lived happily enough together, amassing quite a handsome competence. They have relatives and friends in this city of great respectability who are sore and distressed beyond expression over the double tragedy enacted. The deceased parents left eight children to mourn their loss.

Elephantine Fruit.

We render grateful acknowledgement to our excellent friend Mr. Wm. Semple for a basket of apples and pears, grown on his own farm; we cannot say to what class or variety they belong, but like the store, the business and the liberality of the donor, the fruit of his orchard is large, gigantic, elephantine; and the flavor is suggestive of the complacency and grace that prompted the gift, and which we would emulate, if we could, in our acknowledgement of it. Since our friend became a farmer, as well as a merchant, we may expect soon to hear of him as the largest and best farmer in the country, as he is now the largest and best merchant in the city. Nothing satisfies him but progress, and whether as farmer or merchant, or both, while he lives, and progress is possible, he will progress. We like such men, we glory in them, any city would be proud of him.

CHICAGO.

Serious Accident.

CHICAGO, September 30.—About ten o'clock this morning an accident of a serious character occurred at the new Calvary Presbyterian church, now erecting at the corner of Indiana avenue and Twenty-first street. While raising the trusses for the roof to their positions on top of the walls, the derrick gave way, and the heavy timbers, on which the carpenters were standing, were precipitated to the ground, a distance of nearly seventy-five feet. It was supposed that all were killed, but on rescuing them, it was discovered that not one was killed, but all seriously injured. The men's names are Nicholas Kilberhess, H. Lindston and Frederick Heinbaul. They will probably all recover.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

A terrible conflagration occurred in this city this afternoon about two o'clock. A fire was discovered in an immense brick building situated on the west side of State street, between the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad track and Sixteenth street, known as the Burlington warehouse, one part of which was used for the storage of merchandise and the other part as a Government bonded warehouse. In the former department were goods belonging to nearly two hundred firms, and valued at $800,000, which are all destroyed, while in the bonded warehouse were bonded goods worth three million dollars, all of which escaped injury by reason of a thick fire wall. The fire has been accompanied by loss of life. Charles Stearns, driver for Austin & Bool, is known to be burned to death, and it is feared that three other men have suffered a like fate, as they were seen in the midst of the flames where escape seemed impossible. Several firemen were also more or less injured by falling walls.

PRESIDENT GRANT.

President Grant arrived at Galena on Thursday evening, and was complimented with a serenade by a large number of citizens. The President being wearied by a long day's ride, he made no speech, but merely bowed his thanks. In the afternoon he visited the Davis County Fair, where he did an immense amount of hand shaking with the crowd, and also some kissing. After examining the articles on exhibition, and particularly the cattle, with critical interest, and witnessing a horse race, the President left the grounds. He was accompanied by Mrs. Grant and his daughter Nellie.

The Galena Gazette, speaking of Miss Nellie, says: "You read that she assisted in her mother's receptions at the White House, and is engaged to a gentleman in Covington, Ky., and you know her to be scarcely sixteen; from all this you guess her to be somewhat gay, if not a little haughty. On the contrary, while she is graceful and accomplished for so young a lady, you find her a modest, retiring school girl, with a sweet face and a bearing that wins your respect and esteem."

President Grant reached this city this afternoon, and will remain here until Tuesday morning, when he will leave for Pittsburgh, en route for Washington. He is the guest of his brother.

FREIGHTS.

CHICAGO, October 1.—The merchants of Chicago propose to effect an organization for the purpose of securing to those who may join in the movement protection against the high rates of freight from New York and other eastern cities, which are likely to prevail at the closing of the water routes, and also to recure for freight shipped westward from Chicago a reduction on the present rates, which discriminates against the interests of Chicago.

GRANT'S MOVEMENTS.

President Grant, who reached this city from Galena last evening, is the guest of the Tremont House. Shortly after his arrival, Senators Trumbull and Logan and a number of citizens paid their respects to him. To-morrow the President and Mrs. Grant will hold a public reception in the parlor of the Tremont.

CHRIST CHURCH TROUBLES.

The correspondence which took place some months since between Bishops Lee of Iowa, Whipple of Minnesota, and Whitehouse of Illinois, heretofore referred to in these dispatches in relation to the trial and degradation of Rev. Chas. Ed. Cheney, is published in the Times this morning. It makes three columns and a half.

Refined: 2,600 bbls, New York delivery, 23½c; do 2,000 do, Philadelphia, do 23½c.

To-day was the last day of the week, month and quarter, and, as might have been expected, very little new business was done. There was but a slight change in price, but that little was a downward tendency. Holders have not relaxed their demands, but refiners cannot, with the present market for refined, do business except at a loss, and therefore keep out of the market as much as possible. To-day's business consisted principally of settlements, which were effected at from $4.60 to $4.65 on the Upper, and $4.80 to $4.85 on the Lower.
